Eden States New Spain Plan Offers Basis of Peace

British Foreign Secretary Says Next Few Weeks Will Decide

He Tells Commons Of Italy's Proposal

LONDON (CP and AP)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, addressing the House of Commons at the opening of its fall session today, thanked Italy for making at "the eleventh hour" her new and "very welcome" contribution to Europe's programme of nonintervention in Spain—by agreeing to preliminary steps for withdrawal of foreign fighters in insurgent armies.

Mr. Eden reiterated, however, Britain's determination "to maintain a right-of-way on this main arterial road" — the Mediterranean.

During his remarks, Mr. Eden, listened to by tensely eager members, traced the course of events since Parliament adjourned, both in Spain and the Far East.

The Foreign Secretary declared both Italy and Germany had "substantially modified their views" on the relation of withdrawal of volunteers from Spain and the granting of belligerent rights to the Spanish combatants.

He added the Italians had proposed the "acceptable plan" for deciding on the proportions of withdrawal of foreign volunteers from either army on the basis of figures to be submitted by a commission to be sent to Spain.

GUARANTEE OF PEACE

In the closing moments of his speech, Foreign Secretary Eden declared his faith in Great Britain's growing armaments as a guarantee of peace.

"It is impossible," Mr. Eden declared, "for our foreign policy to be other than closely related to

U.S. To Lay Keel Next Wednesday

WASHINGTON — Secretary Swanson announced today the keel of the new United States battleship North Carolina would be laid at the New York navy yard next Wednesday, Navy Day.

The 35,000-ton super-dreadnaught, first to be built by the United States in more than 15 years, will require four years to complete. It will cost, equipped with 16-inch guns, probably $60,000,000.

ASSAULT CASE IS DISMISSED

Charge of Colin Cameron, M.P.P.-elect, Against Logger Thrown Out

CAMPBELL RIVER, B.C. (CP)—The charge of assault laid against Pete Harambourne, logger, by Colin Cameron, member-elect of the British Columbia Legislature for Comox riding, today was dismissed by Stipendiary Magistrate R. J. Walker of Quathiaski Cove. The hearing lasted 45 minutes.

The charge was laid October 13. Cameron told British Columbia Police Harambourne had used force in refusing him permission to address employees of the Elk River Timber Company at Quinsam, B.C., 13 miles west of here.

The stipendiary magistrate, in handing down his decision, said there was "no question" of the right of any individual or corporation to protect his or its own property, providing that protection is given in a sane manner.

He said Mr. Cameron was "outside any territory where he had jurisdiction." Roads were open to any public place, and the men could have attended any meeting

"Tin-Canners" Moved To Camp

Two Jail Camps Opened By Government; Hart Explains Reasons

Provincial police today began moving convicted "tin-canners" from Oakalla and Vancouver City jails out to prison camps at De Roche and Harrison Lake, on the north bank of the Fraser River.

The prison camps, formerly unemployed camps, are equipped to accommodate 200 men — 100 at each—and there the men will serve terms of 30 days imposed for "obstructing police" while soliciting on Vancouver streets.

Establishment of the prison camps became necessary when accommodation at the regular jails was overtaxed.

Meanwhile the government is negotiating with Ottawa on plans to care for unemployed single men during the winter, Acting Premier John Hart, declared, and expects a dicision before the week-end.

Explaining the decision of the government to open the prison camps, Mr. Hart issued the following statement today:

"The government has the utmost sympathy with all unemployed men who are trying to secure work and maintain themselves, but when the law is openly challenged, either by individuals or by an organized group, as in this case, the government's first duty is to enforce the law without delay. This has been done.

"It should be understood that these men were charged with an offence against the Criminal Code, and were committed and given jail sentences in each case by the police magistrates of Vancouver, which leaves the government with no alternative but to provide jail accommodation for them.

"Since ordinary jail accommodation was overcrowded by this sudden and unexpeceted demand on it, the government was compelled to seek elsewhere for suitable accommodation for the prisoners. The vacant unemployment relief camps selected at Deroche and Harrison Lake for this purpose are excellently equipped with comfortable quarters and all modern sanitary conveniences. The prisoners will be housed there as comfortably as in jail. We feel, therefore, that the camps offered an excellent solution of immediate problem.

"We recognize, however, that these men are not ordinary criminals, and that their arrest and imprisonment is not a solution of their problem. The government has been negotiating with the federal government in Ottawa for some time on plans for handling the single unemployed during the winter months, and we are hopeful that these negotiations will be concluded before the end of this week, when the whole question can be reviewed and we can arrange for a more satisfactory solution of the problem."

Government Will Make Full Investigation of Costs and Efficiency

Hart Not Leaving B.C. Legislature

Finance Minister Says He Will Not Be Candidate In Federal Poll

Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance in the provincial government and member for Victoria, announced today he would not be a prospective candidate for the Dominion by-election.

"I appreciate very much my name having been mentioned as a candidate in the forthcoming Dominion by-election in this city. I wish, however, to state definitely that I will not be a candidate in this election," Mr. Hart said.

Mr. Hart's announcement put an end to speculation of a possible resignation in the provincial ministry in advance of the by-election which takes place November 29.

The local Liberal organization said it would announce nomination plans within the next day or so.

The Conservatives rushed ahead with their preparations. A meeting of the advisory board, consisting of ward leaders, was called for tonight to arrange for naming of delegates and set the date for an executive meeting before November 3, when the nomination meeting will be fixed.

Supporters of King Gordon for the C.C.F. candidacy had not received a reply to their invitation asking him if he would accept the nomination.

Sydney Child, returning officer, said today he had received instructions from Ottawa for the by-election and the proclamations will be posted tomorrow. Voting will be done by polling stations as in the general election. There will be 138 polling places.

World Voyage In Small Ketch

Shelburne, N.S. (CP) — The trim, 37-foot ketch Naomi will be ready for its owner next week, but even if he succeeds it will be two and a half years at least before Charles P. EXPECT QUIET CIVIC CONTEST

Possibility of Acclamation For Mayor McGavin Indicated This Year

The possibility of an acclamation for Mayor Andrew McGavin and a comparatively quiet civic contest with the bus or streetcar plebiscite providing main interest was seen at the City Hall today as arrangements for the annual elections proceeded.

The nearness of the federal by-election was expected to rob the civic fight of much of its thunder and the absence of any major controversial issue to date gave little indication of arousing any great public interest.

Of the five council members, who with the Mayor, complete their terms this year, Alderman Ed. Williams is the only one who has announced his intention of seeking re-election. Alderman W. T. Straith, who is serving a one-year by-election term, has previously stated he would not seek return. Alderman S. H. Okell, Alderman R. A. C. Dewar and Alderman T. W. Hawkins are expected to run again, but they, as well as Mayor McGavin, have declined to make any announceemnt to date.

ARRANGEMENTS MADE

Meanwhile the usual provisions for the elections proceeded at the City Hall. Registration of voters will continue until 5 in the afternoon of November 1.

The names of property-owners go on the list automatically as do the names of householders who have paid both road and poll tax this year and were registered last year. Anyone claiming exemp-

Hon. G. M. Weir Announces General Inspection In Greater Victoria Area

Inquiry Will Start Soon

Efficiency, administration and costs of the schools in Greater Victoria area will be the subject of a thorough investigation by the provincial government, Hon. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education, announced today.

Conducted by government school inspectors, the inspection will start within two or three weeks, and is at the request of the Victoria City Council, with approval of the school board, the minister said.

Other government officials will assist the inspectors, and George H. Deane, who is a government employee, will also take part. Full personnel will be announced later.

"In conducting this investigation the Department of Education is enlarging upon the usual type of inspections made periodically," Dr. Weir said. "On this occasion a general and much more comprehensive investigation will be made. "It is not probable," he added, "that the report on school conditions will be ready before next February or March.

In an outline of the scope of the investigation, Dr. Weir indicated it would go from top to bottom of the school system, not only in Vlictoria, but in the surrounding municipalities, and would consider the feasibility of a Greater Victoria school area.

Another important point to be determined is whether taxpayers are getting full value for their school dollars.

NINE-POINT SUMMARY

The minister explained the extent of the inspection in a nine-point summary, as follows:

1. Present efficiency of the schools of Greater Victoria—(a) Pupils: Grading, classification, retardation, etc.; (b) Qualifications of teachers, certificates, professional improvement, etc.; (c) Courses offered. Are they suited to the needs of the pupils? (d) Are the schools well equipped in the matter of library services, auditoriums, laboratories, gymnasiums, practical arts?; (e) Type of local examinations. Use of approved intelligence and achievement tests; (f) Medical and dental inspection.

2. Is the general administration of the schools satisfactory? What economies can be affected? Can the taxpayers get better educational service for their children at little or no increase in the total cost?

3. Is the new Junior High School well organized and equipped? Are the teachers well qualified? How best can the Junior High School system be extended to the whole area?

4. Is the present provision for technical and commercial education adequate? If not, how can it be improved?

5. How can the new curriculum be best brought into effective use in the schools of Greater Victoria?

6. Municipal inspector's office and work. Quality of supervision, both administrative and education.

7. Feasibility of the formation of a Greater Victoria School Area. Its advantages, both economic

Kidnap Attempt On Baby Fails In Rhode Island

Police Hunt Men Who Tried To Steal State Secretary Cappelli's Son

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Two men, one of them waving a gun, today attempted to kidnap John Cappelli, infant son of Louis W. Cappelli, secretary of state of Rhode Island, but fled after failing to find the boy.

Police immediately started a hunt for the two men.

The boy, one and a half years old, was not at home when the men drove up to the residence. He had been taken out for a ride in his carriage by a maid.

Soon after the matter was reported, a police guard was thrown around the homes of three state racing officials by North Providence police.

Chief William J. Donovan said the attempt at kidnapping caused him to place guards at the homes of Francis J. Kiernan, chairman of the racing commission; James H. Hagan, Jr., commission member, and James H. Doorley, state racing steward.

NURSE WAS STRUCK

About 9.30 a.m., Cappelli said two men, one of them brandishing a gun, drove into the yard of Cappelli's home in North Providence and asked a nursemaid where the boy was. The nurse was struck and her dress was torn in a scuffle which ensued. The men drove away after searching a baby carriage standing in the yard at the time.

Mrs. Cappelli was at a hospital, where she gave birth to her seventh child two weeks ago.

The Secretary of State declared he was at a loss to understand why an attempt should be made to kidnap his son. Attendants at his office said he never had received any threatening letters.

King Completes Yorkshire Tour

He and Queen Return To London After Visiting Cities

LEEDS, Eng. (CP)—The King and Queen, heavily wrapped in coats and rugs, drove through a Yorkshire fog in an open car today. Crowds lined the route and the royal car slowed down as it passed through villages.

Their majesties visited several factories. They took luncheon with the Mayor of Wakefield, G. Hemingway, while outside crowds sang he National Anthem and cheered repeatedly.

Afterwards the royal party continued the tour, ending the day in the steel centre of Sheffield. There, after meeting local notables, the King and Queen boarded the royal train for London.

BOMBERS AVOID FOREIGN AREA

Chinese Planes On New Route Over Shanghai In Attacks on Japanese

SHANGHAI (AP) — Chinese bombers flew over a new route Thursday to avoid the International Settlement in before-dawn raids on Japanese positions about Shanghai.

In previous raids the planes had crossed over the settlement and Japanese anti-aircraft shell fragments had sprayed foreign areas. Wednesday United States Ambassador Nelson T. Johnson made representations against this practice to the Chinese government.

Thursday morning the foreign population slept through the Japanes anti-aircraft fire, unaware that shells were bursting over Pootung, along the new Chinese bombing rout across the Whangpoo River from Shanghai proper.

Chinese bombs damaged a Japanese mill on the river bank and set fire to six buildings. The Japanese anti-aircraft fire apparently was effective.

One foreign area, the Hungjao suburb, where many wealthy foreigners have their homes, was declared by Chinese authorities to be out of bounds of the International Settlement. Chinese were building defences in the district.

The Japanese navy announced successful night bombardment of postions behind Chinese Shanghai lines. Planes raided 15 Chinese artillery positions, the announcement said. It added that at one point on the front

Boy of Three Is Object of Search

JAMESTOWN, N.Y. (AP)—Police sought today to pierce the mystery blanketing whereabouts of Timothy Michael Heer, infant son of a furniture dealer, who disappeared two days ago.

Mrs. Leo J. Heer Wednesday night made a motor tour of the fashionable suburb where the family lives, imploring her three-year-old son over a police patrol car amplifier to "come home to mother."

Timothy Michael's father, secretary of the Jamestown Furniture Market Association, described the boy as "friendly with everybody." He expressed doubt his son had either drowned or been kidnapped.

Forty-eight In Siberia Executed

MOSCOW (AP) — Forty-eight executions were reported today from Siberia.

Cordell Hull Is Ottawa Sightseer

U.S. Secretary Lays Wreath In Veterans' Memory In Peace Tower

OTTAWA (CP)—One of the most distinguished of the 130,000 visitors who have been shown through the Parliament Buildings this year, Cordell Hull, United States Secretary of State, and Mrs. Hull were taken on a personally-conducted tour of the centre block today by Prime Minister King and Finance Minister Charles Dunning.

Of particular interest to the visitors was the Memorial Chamber in the Peace Tower, where Secretary Hull laid on the Altar of Sacrifice a wreath of autumn flowers and maple leaves. During the visit a programme of music was played on the carillon.

Premier King took his guests through the Senate and House of Commons chambers and the library, and they rode elevators to the observation platform on the tower, from which the party had a bird's-eye view of the Dominion capital.

Secretary Hull and his party were guests at a luncheon at the United States legation residence, where Norman Armour, Minister to Canada, was host.

Secretary and Mrs. Hull will leave late tonight for Toronto.

BARGE ADRIFT IN LAKE ERIE

Danger of Explosion Due To Cargo of Benzol Spurs Search in Rough Water

WINDSOR, Ont. (CP)—Turbulent Lake Erie—holder of many secrets within its shallow and treacherous waters—fought hard today to guard two of its latest mysteries. Heavy seas handicapped search for a lost barge laden with benzol and prevented grappling operations to recover the body of a Kingsville, Ont., fisherman.

The search for the barge Argo centred at Pelee Island, 14 miles out on the lake from Kingsville, where it was cut adrift from a tug early Wednesday. The Argo was abandoned by the tug Syosset of Bayonne, N.Y., after taking in several tons of water through a leak. Collison with the craft might result in an explosion, as its hold contains 100,000 gallons of benzol, shipping was warned.

USED LIFE PRESERVERS

Two occupants of the Argo were thrown into the lake by the sudden list to port as the water poured in. They were rescued after a two-hour search by the parent tug. The men, Charles Warwick, 24, and Peter Boszuk, 26, kept afloat with life preservers.

The tug was towing the Argo from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., to New York for its owner, W. J. Townsend of Bayonne.

FRANCO TROOPS CAPTURE GIJON

Surrender of All Asturians Expected As Defenders Give Up

GIJON, Spain (CP-Havas)—Insurgent troops entered this captured city at 5.15 this evening.

All government leaders were understood to have escaped by way of the sea before the city capitulated. The harbor was empty of shipping.

IRUN, Spain (AP)—Hundreds of war-weary government troops, beaten back to the sea by General Franco's army, laid down their arms to surrender the port city of Gijon at noon today.

News that this last important government-held city in all of northwest Spain had capitulated spread quickly through government forces in other sectors of Asturias province, and squads of Asturian miners who had been besieging nearby Oviedo for more than a year marched north to throw themselves at the mercy of the insurgents.

(The miners' army for more than a year had laid siege to Oviedo, held grimly by an insurgent garrison.)

Franco's officers here declared they expected mass surrender of remaining government forces in the north within a few days.

Insurgent control of Gijon left the Valencia government troops holding only a tiny bit of Bay of Biscay coastline from Gijon west to a few miles the other side of Aviles.

MONTAGUE IS IDENTIFIED

Alleged Accomplice Tells Golfer's Part in 1930 New York Holdup

ELIZABETH, N.Y. (AP)—Hollywood's John Montague was identified today as a participant in a $700 Adirondack roadhouse robbery in 1930 by a man who has served a prison term for the crime.

Roger Norton, 35-year-old Cleveland, Ohio, truck driver, once convicted of the crime, sat calmly in a witness chair and testified Montague, then known as Laverne Moore, was an accomplice in the roadhouse robbery.

Asked by Prosecutor Thomas W. McDonald if he could identify Moore in the court room, the soft-spoken witness pointed a finger toward Montague at the counsel table and said:

"That is Laverne Moore."

Montague, who won Hollywood acclaim by his golfing exploits, kept his eyes fixed on Norton throughout the ex-convict's testimony.

He has admitted he is Laverne Moore, formerly a resident of Syracuse, N.Y., but denied participation in the robbery.

HOLDUP DESCRIBED

Norton, who came here voluntarily to testify against Montague on the seven-year-old charge, told in detail events of the August, 1930, night when Kin Hana's roadhouse was held up at Jay, N.Y., 25 miles north of here.

Norton said he and Moore were stopped once by state troopers near Schroon Lake, N.Y., south of here, en route to Schenectady after the holdup, and Moore "talked his way out of it."

They parted at Schenectady.

James M. Noonan, chief of defence counsel, attacked Norton's credibility in a vigorous cross-examination in which the witness said he had had various liquor dealings with Hana and other Adirondack tavern proprietors during prohibition.

ALBERTA DEATH

CALGARY (CP) — First customer of the Alberta Wheat Pool, John H. Martin, 75, the man who brought the first load of grain to the first wheat pool in Canada, is dead. He made the first pool delivery on October 29, 1923. A pioneer Jalroy district farmer, Mr. Martin died this week, it was learned at pool offices here Wednesday.

Thousands See "Weeping" Image

Young Woman's Cornwall, Ont., Home Attracts Infirm In Hope of Cures

CORNWALL, Ont. (CP)—Devout and curious today continued to file past the bed of paralyzed Leona Villeneuve, some claiming miraculous cures by her "weeping statue" of Christ despite expressions of skepticism from churchmen and the woman's physician.

The 30-year-old invalid and her family declared the 27-inch statuette on her dresser had begun to "cry" last Friday after she had ended a nine-day prayer for recovery, promising in the prayer to return to an Ottawa convent and complete her education for holy orders.

Dr. A. J. Aubin, her physician, expressed the opinion moisture had condensed on the cold statuette from the warm air of the woman's bedroom. Cornwall clergy declined officially to express an opinion, but Father Duncan Macdonald of nearby Alemandria, speaking from the bishop's palace in the absence of Bishop Felix Couturier, said Cornwall priests with whom he had talked agreed with the doctor.

MANY BLESSED

In the absence of published explanation for the "weeping" many paused at Leona's bedside and sought and received her blessing. Absorbent cotton was wrapped about the image to collect the drops of water. Fragments of it were snatched by visitors who apparently believed the moisture possessed virtue.

Wednesday night parked automobiles jammed five blocks of the street on which the woman's home stands Many of them bore license plates issued in upstate New York, Montreal and Toronto.

Among cure claimants was Harry Aubin, Leona's brother-in-law. He sat in the Villeneuve home, opposite a pair of crutches, and explained he had broken his foot in three places and was told he would never walk unassisted.

"I had been going around with crutches for the last four months," he said, "but on Sunday I had quite a talk with my sister-in-law. She blessed me and then offered a prayer for me and asked that I be able to walk again. When I had completed my conversation with her I stood up without my crutches and was able to take a few steps.

"Since then I have been able to walk without my crutches at all—but I use them when on the street."

Assault Case Is Dismissed

Cameron had called outside the company's premises.

Planks were laid across soap boxes to accommodate the crowd of people which jammed the small provincial police office where the hearing was held.

The Co-operative Commonwealth Federation M.P.P.-elect conducted his own case. Harambourne was defended by Senator J. W. deB. Farris, K.C.

Carl Berg, driver of the automobile in which Cameron went to Harambourne's logging camp, testified Cameron had asked the logger to "sign a certain paper." Then, he said, "Pete grabbed Cameron and shoved him back."

UNION ORGANIZER

Under cross-examination, Berg told Senator Farris he was an organizer for the Loggers' and Sawmill Workers' Industrial Union, and that the car he drove was owned by the union.

When Cameron took the stand, he testified he had told Berg to stay in the car and "see what was going on." He denied Berg had been taken along to be witness to any eviction.

One of two papers Harambourne refused to sign read as follows:

"This is to certify that the Elk River Timber Company has given instructions to its superintendent to refuse the request of Mr. Colin Cameron, member of the Legislature for Comox, that he be permitted to enter its camp for the purpose of consulting with and interviewing his constituents."

PETITION FOR BILL

The other read:

"We, the undersigned employed in the lumber industry petition the government of British Columbia to endorse and place on the statutes of this province the Trade Union Bill sponsored by the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada and adopted by the provinces of Nova Scotia nad Alberta, recognizing the right to join a trade union and to collective bargaining." A copy of the Trade Union Bill was attached.

LARGE GROUPS

Cameron closed his case with the statement that "large organizations, many of them foreign, seek to set up virtual kingdom and keep their employees incommunicado as in Oakalla Prison."

Senator Farris replied that if Cameron wished to inject foreign color to the case he might mention foreign unions.

"How about John Lewis and the Committee for Industrial Organization?" he demanded. "I am sorry Mr. Cameron brought up this matter of foreign interests. I think the less said the better."

BOMBERS AVOID FOREIGN AREA

Japanese picked up the bodies of 2,000 Chinese dead.

AIRFIELD RAIDED

Semi-official Chinese reports said a Chinese dare-to-die battalion raided a Japanese airfield at Yangpingpao in northern Shansi province and destroyed 24 planes. One hundred Chinese were reported killed.

Japanese at Peiping denied Chinese reports of victories in Shansi province, but admitted the Chinese have established a 50-mile line of trenches in the provincial capital. Japanese officers said their troops were meeting stubborn resistance.

Special police precautions amounting almost to martial law were put into effect at Peiping to protect General Count Juichi Terauchi, Japanese commander on an inspection tour.

At Tokio, Foreign Minister Koki Hirota transmitted to all government offices the text of an invitation to the Nine-power conference on the Chinese-Japanese situation to be held at Brussels, October 30.

The cabinet will meet Friday, but it was considered doubtful that a decision on whether to accept the invitation would be made until later. Foreign Office officials have conferred on the Nine-power invitation and the Foreign Minister was said to have discussed the situation with the Italian ambassador.

NANKING BOMBED

NANKING (AP)—Fifteen Japanese bombing planes attacked extreme northern and southern areas of Nanking Thursday, dropping bombs near an arsenal and a military airfield.

Twelve farmhouses near the airfield were destroyed and 10 peasants were killed or wounded. Several stations along the Nanking-Shanghai Railway also were bombed.

GREATER VICTORIA SCHOOL SYSTEM TO BE STUDIED

and educational, and disadvantages, if any.

8. School costs and methods of school accounting. Can school accounting be improved? If so, what changes could be made to bring this about? What economies, if any, can be effected?

9. Special problems.

WILL HEAR VIEWS

Dr. Weir said the officials conducting the investigation would be pleased to hear the views of the City Council, the Board of School Trustees and citizens generally about school conditions.

Victoria sought an investigation of school costs early this year when the City Council and the school board opened negotiations on the school budget. At that time he council sought a material reduction in the school estimates. After lengthy debate, the board finally reduced its figure.

While the negotiations were being carried on, the council, in a letter under the date of February 16, asked the Minister of Education for an investigation of educational costs. The letter stated the burden was too heavy for the taxpayers to meet; that the cost per student was "considerably higher than that of Vancouver, and that the board had control over but a very small portion of expenditure.

On those grounds, it asked, "That the Minister of Education be requested to appoint an independent committee of inquiry to investigate and report upon the whole question of cost of education in the city of Victoria."

The Minister of Education replied by asking the city for further data on the issue. The required information was supplied by the council and on March 8 the minister replied the question would receive consideration.

Unaware of the details of the government's plan, Mayor Andrew McGavin today delayed comment until he had had an opportunity to study the matter.

PALESTINE JEW OFFICIAL SHOT

School Inspector in Serious Condition; Other Disorders Reported

JERUSALEM (CP-Havas)—Avinoam Yallinam-Bema, inspector of Jewish schools for the Palestine educational ministry, was injured critically today when shot by an unknown assailant, who escaped.

The attack on the official followed sporadic acts of violence during the night. An Arab terorist was killed here by a prematurely exploding bomb and minor disorders were reported from other parts of the Holy Land.

British authorities were cheered by the decison of four members of the Moslem Supreme Council to co-operate with the commission organized to assume direction of the property and valuables abandoned by the Grand Mufti of Jerusalem and other Arab leaders. They stipulated, however, that the commission's jurisdiction was to be limited to financial questions.

EDEN STATES NEW SPAINPLAN OFFERS BASIS OF PEACE

the condition of our armaments. The experience of the last few years should be a grim warning to us, a grim warning to every future government of this country. Now, at length, our growing strength in the field of armament is beginning to appear. Its significance can scarcely be exaggerated.

For that reason, Mr. Eden added, he cordially welcomed the recent verdict of the Labor Party conference at Bournemouth on the question of armaments.

Conservatives laughed.

"It is easy for the honorable gentlemen to laugh at the conversion," Mr. Eden continued. "I for one never could do so—I am only too glad at their conversion—because of the steadily increasing influence it will have on the present international situation."

SAYS GAP WIDENS

Rt. Hon. Clement Attlee, Labor leader, immediately challenged the Foreign Secretary's view. The closing sentences of Mr. Eden's speech, the Labor leader declared, only widened the gulf between the government and the opposition.

Speaking of the situation in Spain, the Foreign Secretary said that despite the disappointments the government still stood by nonintervention. The fact that others might have intervened did not detract from the truth of the doctrine.

"I am convinced the people of this country are united and emphatic in not wishing the government to take sides in what should be a matter for the Spanish people," Mr. Eden declared. "I am also convinced our people wish the government to do everything in their power by example and conference not to let the principle of nonintervention be finally and irrevocably thrown over."

NO INDIFFERENCE

But the Foreign Secretary added warning words that nonintervention must be sharply distinguished from indifference to the territorial integrity of Spain and Great Britain's Empire connections through the Mediterranean.

"There will be no indifference on the part of the government," Mr. Eden exclaimed to loud Conservative cheers, "where it is clear that vital British interests are threatened."

There was no idea of revenge, either overt or latent, but "our position in the Mediterranean is simply this: "We mean to maintain the right-of-way on this main arterial road. We are justified in expecting such right to be unchallenged. We do not ask that that right should be exclusive."

Again a cheer ran round the House.

He said The government sincerely appreciated Italy's two concessions to the Nonintervention Committee Wednesday as a contribution to international settlement.

Mr. Eden said he would be the last to indulge in exaggerated optimism. There were problems enough and to spare still outstanding. But there was now a chance of real progress. The next few weeks would show, and the Foreign Secretary significantly added: "I say weeks deliberately."

The British government, Mr. Eden proceeded, welcomed the Brussels Nine-Power conference on the Far East. In the British view the meeting of the powers concerned was the best method of finding means of ending the conflict. The Foreign Secretary said that today he had received a message that Yvon Delbos, French Foreign Minister, intended to attend the conference and that the Italian government would send a delegation.

The paramount desire of everyone was to see an end to the slaughter and misery. "If the meeting of the nine powers can achieve this, it will render the greatest possible service," Mr. Eden declared. "If it fails, then we enter a new situation.

"His Majestay's government will enter the conference with the determination to do everything in their power to ensure the success of its labors.

STEPS CRITICIZED

Labor Leader Attlee charged that every step the government had taken "has encouraged aggression."

"The government is leading this country to the brink of another war," he said, calling Spanish nonintervention a "one-sided farce.'"

He asserted Japan would not have invaded China if it had not been for the policy of Great Britain and other governments "which always let the adventurers get away with it."

LAKE MICHIGAN SHIP MISSING

Coast Guard Watching For Freighter Lanart, Unreported

GRAND HAVEN, Mich. (AP) Coastguard stations on both sides of Lake Michigan were ordered to watch today for the freighter Lanart of the Canada Steamship Lines, unreported since she left North Manitou Island, Wednesday, for Holland, Mich.

The Lanart was en route from Montreal with a load of potash and put into North Manitou Island Tuesday night during the severe windstorm which swept the lake. The steamer resumed her vayage at 2 a.m. Wednesday, the captain telling members of the coastguard station on the island that if the wind shifted he would lay a course down the Wisconsin shore.

At the state dinner Wednesday evening, at which Prime Minister King was host, the guests, in addition to Secretary and Mrs. Hull, included other members of the visiting party, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Armour, and other officials of the United States Legation with their wives, members of the government and the Privy Council, and representatives of the capital's diplomatic corps.

During his visit as a guest of Lord Tweedsmuir, Secretary Hull has firmly refused to be drawn into discussion of official questions and consented to be quoted only on his words of tribute to the friendly relations between his country and Canada.

Because of rough waters since Henry Kissner, 35, was drowned Sunday when a fishing tug burned to the water's edge, dragging operations have been postponed daily. Kissner lost his life after a gasoline explosion aboard the Kingsville craft had forced its three occupants to take to the storm-ridden chilly waters.

The other two, James Goodhue, 37, and Orville McCormick, 35, were rescued by another fishing boat after clinging to two fish boxes for half an hour.

Cost Of Living Shows Change

OTTAWA (CP)—The Dominion Bureau of Statistics' cost of living index, based on numerous factors affecting the family budget, showed a rise of 3 per cent in September in a yearly comparison, but declined to 83.4 from an August figure of 83.6 The base year is 1926.

Principal contributing factor to the downward trend in the current year was a two-month recession in food prices which ran counter to average seasonal behaviour. Principal recessions occurred in vegetables and beef, which declined sufficiently to offset rises in prices of eggs, butter and other meats.

Japan plans to supply free radios to families of soldiers in China so that they can hear Japanese government broadcasts on the Chinese situation.

Oak Bay Voters Meet Tonight

Reeve and Council To Explain Fire Department Plan To Ratepayers

The details and objects of a $36,000 money by-law to provide for installation of a municipal fire department, which will be put to a vote of Oak Bay ratepayers on Saturday, will be explained at a public meeting in the Municipal Hall at 8 tonight by Reeve R. R. Taylor and members of the council.

Interest and sinking fund charges for the loan, which is to be amortized over 10 years, will be $4,653 annually, and the initial operating cost of the department is estimated at $15,000 a year, making a total yearly expense of slightly less than $20,000.

A circular has been distributed among the ratepayers by the council explaining the plan.

"It is considered that the time is ripe for the establishment of our own fire department," the circular says. "There are already over 2,200 houses and business premises in the municipality and the number is growing steadily. At present fire protection service is being given by the city of Victoria from a fire hall a mile and a quarter from the municipal boundary, whereas the proposed fire hall and equipment will be centrally located within the boundaries of the municipality. Two up-to-date fire trucks, each equipped with a 600-gallon pump, and an adequate supply of hose and ladders will be purchased. The fire chief will also be provided with a car carrying certain equipment. There will be a staff of qualified firemen on duty at all times. . . .

As a definite offset to the operating cost, a reduction in fire insurance rates has been promised us by the underwriters if we install a department equipped as stated above. The promised reduction is 11 per cent for dwellings and apartments, and 15 per cent for mercantile risks. No reduction will be granted if we continue to take service from the city.

"The alternative to the installing of our own department is to make the best arrangement possible with the city. The City Council recently made us a proposal to re-open the Duchess Street hall and enter into a three-year contract at an annual cost of $17,500. This is $6,000 a year more than the amount charged by the city in 1936. The offer has now been withdrawn, and if the by-law is rejected negotiations will have to be re-opened.

"In the matter of costs, the taxpayers are asked to consider that in any event we are confronted with a considerable increase. The true comparison is between the amount payable to the city and the $19,653 estimated for our own department. If we take our cost at the round figure of $20,000 and compare it with that of the Duchess Street proposal, the increase is only $2,500, or about one-third of a mill. Against this extra tax may be set the reduction in insurance rates and an improved service. It should be emphasized that our cost will include the acquiring of valuable physical assets, and we have no guarantee that the city will renew its $17,500 offer.

"A third of a mill on a house assessed at $3,000 on a $500 lot is 66 cents. Generally speaking the reduced insurance rates will more than offset the increased tax.

"As regards the relative efficiency of the present service, it should be remembered that the city fire halls also have to cope with fires and alarms in the city. The risk of large fires or conflagrations is much greater in the city than in a residential area like Oak Bay. When the city fire department is called out to fight fires in the city, especially from the Duchess Street and Yates Street halls, Oak Bay's fire protection is considerably reduced. Even if we regard the problem to some extent from a community point of view, it is obvious that the purchase of new equipment and the employment of additional fire fighters will increase the value of the fire protection service available to the entire community of Oak Bay and Victoria."

League Medical Aid For China

PARIS (AP)—The League of Nations control committee Wednesday approved plans to send a corps of medical experts to aid China. Delegates of Venezuela, France, Russia, Czechoslovakia, Norway, Poland and Hungary, meeting in Paris, authorized this use of 2,000,000 Swiss francs ($460,000) voted October 5 by the League Assembly "to help the Chinese Government in its fight against epidemics."

That was what R. C. Lane, administrator appointed by the provincial government to manage the town's affairs, revealed here Wednesday.

Y.P.S. HOLDS MASS RALLY

Rev. John Bell Blames Dictatorships For World's Chaos

At the annual massed rally of the Greater Victoria Young People's Union, Tuesday night, Rev. John Bell, B.A., assistant minister at First United Church, flayed the dictatorial nations for their contribution to the present chaotic world conditions, and challenged the 20th century young people to take active steps in combating subversive influences. Gilbert Brown, union president, was in the chair.

Announcement was made of the reorganization of the United Church Young People's Council of Greater Victoria and District. All socities were requested to send three delegates to the council meeting to be held in the First United Church vestry on Wednesday evening, October 27.

R. Ferry spoke against Japanese aggression in China, and urged an economic boycott of Japanese oranges and other merchandise until the Japanese military machine has been removed from Chinese soil.

N. Morgan, president of the Greater Victoria Youth Council, explained the work of the Canadian Youth Congress, which met recently at Montreal.

John Bong, Chinese tenor, rendered a solo in Chinese, Barbara Dawson gave a sacred recital, and Walter Reid played selections from "Maytime" and "Rose Marie."

A sing-song was led by Bert Simpson, president of Oak Bay United Y.P.S.

The pianists were Josephine Wong, Barbara Dawson, Audrey McNaughton and Phyllis O'Leary.

The devotional period was conducted by the Christian Fellowship Committee. Those taking part included: Frank Hollins, Centennial United; John Bong, Chinese United; Mun Hope, Metropolitan, and Audrey McNaughton, First United. It was brought to a close by the Mizpah Benediction.

Drama Awards For 1937 Made

Ross A. Lort, Vancouver, Selected Here As Outstanding in B.C.

Ross A. Lort of Vancouver was selected as recipient of the Canadian Drama Award for British Columbia at the annual meeting of the governing committee, held here yesterday evening. Mr. Justice A. E. McPhillips was chairman and Gen. Sir Charles Delme-Radcliffe vice-chairman.

Chosen to receive the 1937 award in other provinces were:

Alberta — Mrs. E. J. Bryans, Lethbridge; Mrs. D. W. "Joan" Hays, Medicine Hat. Saskatchewan—James Sinclair, Regina Manitoba—Mrs. C. Claude Sinclair, Winnipeg. Ontario — Herman E. Voaden, Toronto; Stanley Meredith, London, Ont. Quebec—M. Jean Beraud, Montreal; Cecil West, Montreal. New Brunswick — No recommendations received. Nova Scotia —George E. Graham, Kentville. Prince Edward Island—J. Austin Trainor, Charlottetown.

With the aid of advisory board members in each province, the committee seeks once a year to select a few men and women throughout the Dominion who are known to have done outstanding, and especially pioneer work for the development of Canadian drama. Those chosen receive a handsome diploma and the right to place the letters C.D.A. after their names in all matters connected with drama.

"The fact that His Excellency Baron Tweedsmuir, consented to become our honorary president, and that Hon. E. W. Hamber, Leiutenant-Governor of British Columbia, not only accepted the office of honorary vice-president, but also most generously donated a sum large enough to carry on the work of this institution until next fall, is sufficient indication that our work is regarded as a worthy contribution to the cultural development of the Dominion," the secretary stated.

B.C. SYNOD IN SESSION HERE

Rev. D. A. Smith Succeeds Rev. W. Ellis, Vancouver, As Moderator

"We can look to only one realm for stability, the soul of man. Even measurements, the elements of mathematics, change; matters of education, science and theology change, but the things of the soul cannot be destroyed," said Rev. Walter Ellis, retiring moderator of the British Columbia Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, at the first session of the annual gathering last night in St Andrew's Church.

Presenting "the challenge of the unchangeable," Mr. Ellis stated the whole world was searching for some certainty. Whole nations were turning to dictators, temporal authorities, and millions of persons were listening to false, changeable doctrines, but the church could demonstrate that its Deity was static.

Throughout the moral universe, Mr. Ellis said, there existed an immoral discord, not primarily in man's environment or body, but between his soul and God. There was no possibility of eternal fellowship between a righteous God and a man who was wrong.

REPENTANCE

Repentance was the first step necessary in silencing the discord, and the next step a quickening of the soul's interest, into assurance and faith.

Faith established the connection between the soul of man and God. Beyond that there was sanctification, the appearance of the fruit of the spirit in the life of the individual.

"I would not shut anybody's eyes short of the land of glory," Mr. Ellis said. "God's work is not complete until a soul is taken to the land where fadeless day waits.

"These things are static. . . . These we must preach with new force and attractiveness."

The gospel, he said, was narrower than multiplication tables There was need for much more exactitude in the things of man's soul than in any doctor's prescription, and there was no salvation under any other programme than narrowness, for in narrowness lay safety and certainty.

NAME MODERATOR

By the unanimous vote of the Synod, Rev. David A. Smith, superintendent of Chinese missions for the Presbyterian Church of all Canada, was chosen to succeed Mr. Ellis as moderator.

Present at the Synod were 18 members from the New Westminster Presbytery, several from the Kootenay Presbytery and many Victorians.

Earlier in the day the missions and young people's committees, led by Rev. A. C. Wishart and Rev. J. C. McLean-Bell, respectively, met for preliminary discussions.

This morning and afternoon were spent in business sessions, and this evening at 8 the public is invited to hear W. M. Kannawin of Toronto give an account of the World Sunday School Convention in Oslo, to which he was official delegate from Canada.

Lively Calgary City Election

CALGARY (CP) — Calgary's civic election, November 17, for the mayor's and council seats, may be the greatest free-for-all campaign in the city's history. Candidates of four organizations, and perhaps more, will be in the field.

The Civic Government Taxpayers' Association, the Alberta Social Credit League, the Canadian Labor Party and a newly-formed Progressive Civic Association plan to name candidates.

Mayor Andrew Davison, completing his fourth two-year term, will seek re-election as an independent. He will be opposed by Alderman J. W. Gillman, Independent. There is also a possibility of Labor and Social Credit candidates for the mayor's chair.

November 1 will be nomination day.

New Zealand Adds Defences

WELLINGTON, N.Z. (CP-Havas)—A number of national defence bills, providing for reorganization of the Dominion's armed forces, were passed on first reading in the New Zealand House of Representatives Wednesday.

One of the bills calls for creation of an army air crops. The personnel of the new corps will be chosen from the reserve forces and territorials.

Australians Talk Of Conscription

New South Wales Veterans Urge Compulsory Military Service

SYDNEY, Australia (CP-Reuters)—A demand for the introduction of compulsory military service in Australia has been made by New South Wales branches of the Returned Soldiers' League. A resolution to this effect was carried, almost without discussion, at the state congress of the league here.

The resolution, moved by the Warren branch, asks that "the government should be urged forthwith to reintroduce a compulsory system of military, naval and air training, covering a period of at least three years, with a view to the organization of an efficient network of defence, which is only possible by a knowledge of the operation of modern weapons, the acceptance of disciplinary routine, the theory of war movements and physical fitness."

The state president, L. A. Robb, declared that if war broke out anywhere affecting the Empire, Australia would necessarily be in it. He demanded that in time of crisis the whole resources of the country—wealth, man-power and products—should be conscripted for the services of the nation.

Hopeful News From London

ITALY, SUPPORTED BY GERMANY, HAS agreed to Great Britain's proposal for the gradual withdrawal of foreign troops from Spain. It is suggested that the programme will be followed out on the following lines:

1. Withdrawals to begin—probably in equal numbers from among foreigners fighting with the insurgents and the government of Spain.

2. A commission will go to Spain to report on the numbers of volunteers and a system for their evacuation.

3. Complete evacuation to be undertaken.

4. An independent authority, probably the Nonintervention Committee, to decide the moment when belligerent rights should be granted.

Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden, Britain's Foreign Minister, is "gratified at the accomplishments" and attitude adopted at yesterday's meeting, and feels sure that if the same progress is maintained in the next few days "we shall have gone considerably toward solving our problems."

All will hope that Mr. Eden's optimistic statement will be justified by the course of events. Even this amount of progress has been altogether too long in coming. But if it means nothing else, it would seem to mean, in spite of all the bluff and bluster from the Fascist-Nazi front in recent days, that as soon as the atmosphere begins to feel too warlike, reason is given sufficient latitude to tone it down.

It can be said again with obvious truth that a major conflict of arms in Europe—it would involve the whole world—would mean the end of our civilization and the enthronement in its stead of a reign of terror that would make Fascist-Nazi's wildest conception of Communism look like a verbal row at Geneva.

Our By-Election

OUR MORNING CONTEMPORARY SAYS today that "no one can complain that any undue time has been allowed to lapse in announcing the date for a by-election here to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. S. F. Tolmie." It notes that Victoria has less than six weeks in which to "deal with such issues as there are in the federal arena" and other matters involved. One can pay ungrudging tribute to such philosophic resignation. The Colonist and The Montreal Gazette are bewailing the fact that the Conservatives of Canada do not get together to dig up some sort of national policy which would furnish a much-needed rallying point.

But we fear it is a hopeless task. Canada is solidly Liberal from coast to coast. Victoria has had several opportunities in the last 16 years to join the great majority but has turned them down. Next November 29, however, it will have another opportunity to send a representative to Ottawa who will not have to be content to fill a seat in the cool shades of opposition.

A Tale In Headlines

THOSE FORTUNATE OR UNFORTUNate ladies and gentlemen who are wont to come down town early in the morning to take a quick or leisurely look at the intelligence as it appears on the ever-changing boards in stockbrokers' offices have been having a hectic time these last few weeks. Here is the story of a week in newspaper headings:

Stocks Crumble Under Pressure on Wall Street
Stocks Plunge to Fresh Depths
Some Securities Lose as Much as $10
Biggest Slump In Years—What Will the End Be?
Wheat Selling Offsets Export
End Day With Dive to Depths
Oils and Gold Take Severe Losses on Vancouver Exchange
Montreal and London Badly Hit

These are only a few headings to doleful narratives of consternation in the stock market. (There were visions of a repetition of 1929 and all that followed those blue years of the crash). But here are samples of the headings of stock market activities of a couple of days later:

Stocks Push Upward in Active Trading on Wall Street Today
List Higher at Montreal
Sharp Rally at Toronto
Maximum Gains on Winnipeg Market
Bonds Active at New York
Substantial Gains on Mainland List
Bulls Rampant in Winnipeg Pit
Buyers Flock to Send Up Prices
Prices Soar in Continuing Rally on Wall Street
Toronto Stocks on the Rebound
Trading Brisk With Prices Recovering on Vancouver Exchange

The headings we have selected tell their own story. But it will not be unnatural if the average person has begun to wonder why such extraordinary economic somersaults should be performed every once in a while, accompanied by all the devastating fears they raise.

Oscar's Golden Service

THE CHARGE THAT THIS STREAMlined and speed-crazy world is sadly lacking in gourmets who appreciate the fine art of cookery and really know how to enjoy food leisurely at its superlative best, is scarcely tenable in the light of the extraordinary banquet given "Oscar of the Waldorf," in celebration of his golden wedding anniversary.

It was a party in honor of a master who has achieved international fame through catering with impeccable taste for something like half a century at New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel to the discriminating appetite of many of the world's highest placed men, including kings and princes of the blood, captains of finance and industry, and the ordinary visitor to New York who has the price of Waldorf-Astoria board and lodging. And here is what the celebrants had before them:

Green turtle soup, with sherry; brook trout gourmet with cucumbers in cream dressing, Steinwein, 1930; mignon of beef, bearnaise with new peas, lettuce, claret, 1925; Kirsch sherbet; grey-legged partridge and wild rice and currant jelly, Waldorf salad, red burgundy, 1930; golden anniversary dessert, wedding cake, fresh fruit, champagne, vintages of 1926 and 1928; coffee, cognac 50 years old. The food was served on gold plates.

This banquet was well supplied with intellectuals. It was presided over by Dr. John H. Finley, editor of The New York Times, as toastmaster, and eloquent speeches in praise of the art of the guest of honor (a man who has risen from busboy to host of one of the world's most famous hotels) were broadcast from coast to coast. Messages of congratulation and appreciation of Oscar were read from the President and the members of his cabinet; from ambassadors and ministers, among others.

And there was an illuminated scroll for Oscar, with the signatures of hundreds of men and women—royalty, rich folk, leaders in the arts and sciences—who have been entertained by him during his 54 years of hotel service.

It was a striking tribute to a master of his art and it indicates that the modern world actually has its share of gourmets of the first rank.

Progress Note

IN THE WHOLE FOUR YEARS OF THE Great War, bombs dropped from the air over Great Britain accounted, according to official figures, for only 1,413 deaths; from airplanes 857, and from airships 556. The worst of these raids was in June, 1917, over the county of Essex and the great metropolis of London—162 killed and 432 injured. But one attack by Japanese on Canton the other day, snuffed out the lives of more than 3,000 Chinese!

Notes

What the nine-power treaty seems to lack is power.

World peace will remain a Utopian myth until the munitions factories are torn down.

One person in 3,000,000 made $1,000,000 in the United States during 1935. Still a land of opportunity.

According to a foreign correspondent "What will Hitler do next?" is the question in every European mind. Including Hitler's?

The market collapse, which we hope culminated Tuesday, wiped out $25,000,000,000 in the value of securities listed in New York. A couple of more days' decline, at the rate the market was falling, would have made the total rival the United States national government's debt of $37,000,000,000.

When Howard Scott, the advocate of social engineering in the light of technocratic development, was here at the low point of the depression, he predicted the recovery movement of the last four years, with a violent market break in 1938. The stock market in its current collapse has beaten him to it by two or three months. In view of the fact that he has proved himself a pretty good prognosticator, we shall be eager to hear Mr. Scott's interpretation of current trends, when he speaks at the City Temple Friday evening.

A MISCHIEVOUS SUGGESTION

From The Vancouver Sun

Some of our good Tory friends are bruiting the rumor that Hon. John Hart might like to succeed the late Dr. Tolmie in the Dominion House of Commons.

It is fairly plain that there is an element of mischief in the suggestion.

We do not know, of course, what is in Mr. Hart's mind. It may be that, after many years of able and devoted service in British Columbia, Mr. Hart does hanker after the tranquility of a back bench on Capitol Hill and the refreshing novelty of new sand traps and new greens.

We would be the last to condemn his desire if such his desire should be. He deserves, after all his labors, to choose his own course.

But it would seem to us that Mr. Hart's job still lies in this province. And we believe that his high sense of duty would not permit him to leave it.

The mischief in the suggestion that has been thrown out by Conservative sources that Mr. Hart might go to Ottawa lies in the choice of two inferences:

1. That Mr. Hart is unhappy in his present post.

2. That Mr. Hart's services are unsatisfactory.

Both alternatives, of course, are absurd.

But the incident serves to show that the Tory genius for propaganda and innuendo is still burning unabated.

Centuries ago, Virgil wrote, "Timeo Danaos et dona ferentes."

A liberal and modernized and "debunked" translation of that might be, "I fear the Tories when they come flying kites."

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

IF WINTER COMES

A DAY OR TWO in Vancouver always gets me down, as it probably does you, when I come home and write about it. At this time of the year Vancouver is beautiful, with the North Shore mountains floating in a blue haze, but it is a melancholy beauty which will soon end. You can feel the winter stealing over Vancouver now, coming in like a mist off the sea, about to cover the city deep like a blanket. In a little while the rain and the fog will almost hide Vancouver entirely, while our precious Victorian wind, which aliens so detest, is keeping us clean and fresh.

But it is not merely in the narrow matter of season and climate that Vancouver is approaching winter. Spiritually it is approaching winter, also. You can feel it in a big city. You can see how the civilized people of Vancouver, like the squirrels and bears, are getting ready for spiritual hibernation; getting ready to quit the outdoors for their steam-heated caves and burrows; getting ready to den up until the spring.

In the first place, the unemployed and the unfortunates are pouring into Vancouver again, as they would pour in here if it were not for the useful Gulf of Georgia. You see them standing on the corners of the main streets, ragged youngsters, rattling tomato cans with a penny inside to make a noise, trying to collect money to eat. Walking about Vancouver most of one day I didn't see anyone put a coin in a single box.

The city is getting ready to arrest the tin-canners again and put them in Oakalla, where they will each cost you and me, the taxpayers, a dollar or two a day to maintain. This is what the lads want, because Oakalla is comfortable when you haven't got an overcoat or a bed to sleep in or anything in your stomach. This is the way our civilization meets the challenge of these times

And, on the other hand, the state's efforts to help these men in the past has bred a class of shiftless youngster who, working in the summer, will never save a nickel, knowing that someone will have to look after him in the winter. The thing has become a vicious circle until you have the present remarkable spectacle of hungry men in a rich city trying to collect a few dimes, which the public won't give them, in the hope of being put in jail, where the public will pay handsomely for their upkeep.

CIVIC GIRAFFE

MY FRIEND PERCY took me to have a look at the new City Hall, built by Mr. McGeer, the most ghastly square, upended hunk of naked concrete ever conceived by man. "Look at it," said Percy, waving his hand in rage. "Look at the damned thing, will you! They tell me not to be old-fashioned and Gothic, because this architecture is functional and is designed for the use it is intended for. Functional! That, I suppose, excuses everything; every brutality and ugliness. Functional! A sacred word! Listen, a giraffe is the most perfectly functional thing in the world, perfectly designed for the use it's intended for. Who wants to be a giraffe? An elephant is divinely functional. Why not build the City Hall with a trunk on it? Men are functional, too, and look at us, the ugliest thing on earth! I tell you, the man who designed that Concrete Thing there, that Civic Giraffe, had no soul. He was just functional."

VICTORY SQUARE

IN VICTORY SQUARE you can feel the winter coming. Ragged men sit on the benches there, as they did all through the Depression, and discuss the phenomena of our economic system, or just sit. An old man with white hair was the centre of a group on a bench today and he was laying down the truths of the system with eloquence, while a dozen idle fellows stood about, listening, half amused, half believing.

He said the trouble with the world was gold. He kept repeating it like a chant, "Gold, gold, gold." He said Mr. McGeer didn't understand money. He said Mr. Aberhart didn't understand money. He said there were only a few fellows like him who understood money. If people would only listen to men who understood money, he said, everything would be all right. The little group of idle men drifted off. The man who understood money turned up the collar of his ragged coat and took a piece of bread and butter, wrapped in newspaper, out of his pocket and began to eat it contemplatively, scattering a few crumbs for the pigeons.

PAGE ONE

ACROSS THE STREET the great presses of The Province began to roll and copies of the paper were hung in the press room windows where a crowd of ragged men read the front page. It was a lovely commentary on our civilization and another portent of winter that is settling down. I took a note of seven headlines as follows: "Three Die As Fire Razes Old Hotel"; "1,400 Chinese Die to Retain Tazang Base"; "Three Killed as Planes Collide in Ontario"; "Nineteen Believed Dead in Air Crash in U.S."; "Accidents Claim Six Lives in City and West"; "Drowns in Fraser as Punt Capsizes"; "Toronto Man Killed in Tiff Over Politics."

All on the front page in one day. Life is adventurous in big cities.

STARVATION

GO TO LUNCH. And there I discovered another important fact about life in big cities. People don't get enough to eat. The women don't anyway. Apparently, a stenographer in a city office exists through the day on a tomato sandwich and a cup of strong black coffee, with just enough calories in it to maintain a bantam hen for two hours.

These girls must spend a sizeable amount every year on silk stockings, rouge, scarlet nail polish and hats. But they can't afford enough to eat. There must be thousands of them in Vancouver in a state of permanent semi-starvation. This civilization can afford all the luxuries, but not the necessities of life. So long as they look all right on the outside, these girls can get jobs. Nobody cares what goes on inside, or whether anything goes on at all.

Britain and France "Only Bluffing," Hitler Told Mussolini

LONDON.

ACCORDING to The Week, the real story of the Hitler-Mussolini conversations, now leaking out as informants in Berlin are able to nose their way at last through the litter of public statements and sapient "interpretations" accompanying same, declares that:

Private conversations were short because they did not have to be long; all they had to do was to confirm "the prescription as before," as the correct line for the Berlin-Rome axis in dealing with the western powers;

The most sensational feature of the conversations was Hitler's outspoken assurance to Mussolini that the western powers are bluffing on Spain, that the bluff can be called as before, and that he knows this to be so from information received from the British Embassy in Berlin;

Hitler further declared that France can be paralyzed by continued attack on the franc and by continued terrorist pressure; the theory being that the effects of both would be either a temporary chaos or drastic measures of defence by the Left. In the latter case, the effects on the British Right would be such as to ensure a weakening of the Paris-London axis and a free hand for Berlin and Rome (repeating the process carried out successfully in the late spring and sumer of '36, when a "Red France" scare, engineered in London—with the assistance of the present U.S. Ambassador to Paris and the Astor family — helped effectively to paralyze the western powers).

JOURNEY'S END

THE BIG card in the Berlin-Rome hand was not discussed in Berlin between Hitler and Mussolini. On the other hand, it has within the past three weeks been frequently discussed between the general staffs of the two powers.

The card is Lyon.

Mr. Wickham Steed was the first writer to disclose in English what at that time, though it has been freely admitted later, was a secret of the Austra-German general staff during the 1914-1918 war.

During the war it was more or less generally supposed that the reason why the German high command was willing to detach very considerable forces—of all branches—for the assistance of an Austrian offensive (as opposed to the mere stiffening of an Austrian defensive) in North Italy was Milan and its industrial region.

Later it was revealed by the German general staff that the real objective of that so nearly successful drive was not Milan—which the Germans at that time did not think worth the trouble — but Lyon; attainable they calculated then, and they calculate now, only by outflanking the Swiss barrier via the North Italian Plain.

DRANG NACH WESTEN

LYON, calculated ever since the younger Moltke as a heart of France no less vital—or fatal—than Paris; that is the "grand coup" which the Berlin-Rome axis might bring once again, and under much more favorable circumstances, within grasp.

The importance of the control of Vienna pales in comparison, for the consolidation of positions in Austria and the Balkans is only the preparation for the "Drang nach westen." The assurance of passage across the North Italian Plain in the "Drang" itself; 1871 up-to-date.

HOW ABOUT SOME PSYCHOLOGY?

To the Editor:—At the High School this year there will be a practical psychology class, providing there can be found 15 to take the course. The word "psychology" might scare some away, but nine of us found last Monday night that 9 o'clock came all too soon, and that this subject is no dry one, above most heads, but a really delightful one, and of interest to all. The next class is Monday, October 25, at 7.30, Room 9, Victoria High School, and this will be the final unless 15 or more turn up.

PENSIONER FINDS GOING HARD

To the Editor:—The Dominion-provincial Conference is to discuss old age pensioners now getting $20 a month. The pensioners are now dropping off in B.C. at the rate of 25 per cent.

I can't see why the poor old men and women can't have their few dollars and a little more at 60 or 65, considering the few that live that long, and everything going up each day. Most of the old age pensioners claim that they are not living—just keeping alive till they are called. The sale tax is added to the cost of living.

W. O. PHARE.

MISUSE OF WORDS

To the Editor:—The habit of misusing and abusing words has grown to such an extent in this age that people are generally becoming dazed by the remarks of so-called authorities.

No better example of the abuse of a word can be obtained than by bringing to mind the use Communists make of the word "liberty."

When a Communist uses the word "liberty" he means "slavery," just as when he says "liquidation" he means murder." Has not the arch enemy of the human race, Lenin, one of the gods of Communism, said that: "Liberty is a bourgeois superstition?"

"Liberty" as the word is used by Communists and their allies means the liberty of cuckoos in cuckoo clocks or of convicts in penitentiaries. Similarly with "democracy" and "peace."

DEATH WAITS AT THIS CORNER

To the Editor:—The wonder of the ever-increasing number of fatal automobile accidents is surpassed by the mystery of the marvelous number of narrow escapes which are not recorded.

The extraordinary things that have happened in the one block on Burnside, referred to by Mr. Savage, would fill a page of this paper. Here is just one: Some years ago I saw a full-loaded coal truck, driver and three men swing around three times and back safely into Tillicum Road. Remember this paving is only 18 feet wide and an inch over the jagged edge would have done it. There were other cars approaching the spot from three angles, but every one was just a second or two late to get in the way of the performing truck. Speechless with amazement, the driver took a deep breath and proceeded to deliver his five tons of coal.

Many drivers know this turn, where the number of marvelous escapes far outnumber the accidents reported to the police, but the innocently-ignorant will one day (or night) be caught. Death is a sportsman. As a gambler, he takes his losses but he wins a prize in the sweepstake now and again and he has been waiting for over 20 years to get what is coming to him at this corner. Surely Mr. Savage does not propose to cheat him!

How To Overcome Piles And Rectal Soreness

If you are annoyed with itching piles or rectal soreness, do not neglect the same or run the risk of an operation. Any itching, soreness or painful passage of stool, is nature's warning and proper treatment should be secured at once. For this purpose get from MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores or any druggist, a package of Hemroid and use as directed. This formula, which is used internally, quickly relieves the itching and soreness and aids in healing the sore, tender spots. Hemroid is a physician's prescription and is highly recommended. It is easy to use and it seems the height of folly for anyone to risk an operation when a simple remedy, which is so pleasant to use may be had at such a reasonable cost.

Gown of Gold Lame For Queen

LONDON (CP)—Queen Elizabeth will wear a gold and white gown when she assists King George at the ceremony of opening Parliament next week.

On a corsage with a heart-shaped decolletage, gold flowers are outlined in glittering diamente. The gown is backless and is supported by wide straps. It has a slight train, falling from the waist. Over the gown the Queen will wear a shoulder cape of white ermine.

Married At Hotel Ceremony

Miss Walleta Thompson Bride Today Of Mr. Leslie F. Osborne

A marriage service was quietly solemnized this afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Duke of Kent suite at the Empress Hotel, when Miss Walleta Besant, youngest daughter of Mrs. M. E. Thomas of 1563 Hampshire Road, Oak Bay, and the late Mr. Thomas, became the bride of Mr. Leslie Follett Osborne, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Follett Osborne of 3009 Deane Avenue, and nephew of the late Sir William Follett, Q.C., of London, England.

Only relatives were present at the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, and wore a gown of ivory chiffon velvet fashioned on princess lines with long train, over which was draped a filmy net veil held in place on her head with a coronet of orange blossoms, while her bouquet was a shower of Talisman roses and carnations.

She was attended by her niece, Miss Irene Hanna of Vancouver, who wore a frock of peach-colored lace over peach taffeta and a hat to match, while the bridegroom was supported by Mr. Donald Brake.

At the small reception which followed the ceremony the guests were welcomed by Mrs. Thomas, wearing a gown of black velvet, a hat to match with nose veil, and a corsage of orange blossoms, and by Mrs. Osborne, wearing a dress of sapphire blue velvet, with modified train and cape to match, a Gainsborough hat in the same shade and a corsage of roses and carnations. A profusion of chrysanthemums and gladioli adorned the reception rooms in the suite.

The bride and bridegroom left later on a trip to California and on their return from the south will make their home on Deane Heights.

How to refine POOR COMPLEXIONS

Modern Medicated Cream aids in healing ugly skin faults—relieves irritation—reduces enlarged pores, too

THOUSANDS of women report clearer, softer complexions — after using this simple, easy, inexpensive plan — an effective medicated vanishing cream.

It's Noxzema Skin Cream, first prescribed by doctors to relieve Eczema, Burns and similar skin irritations. Nurses discovered how effective Noxzema is for Badly Chapped Hands and for Poor Complexions. Today over 14,000,000 jars of Noxzema are used to relieve irritations and improve the skin texture.

Noxzema is snow-white, greaseless, medicated. Apply it at night after removing make-up. Wash off in the morning with warm water, then apply cold water or ice. Apply a little more as a protective foundation for powder. Use Noxzema until skin is completely relieved.

Noxzema's medication is an aid to rapid healing and brings quick relief to skin irritations from external causes. It is astringent, too—helps reduce ugly enlarged pores to exquisite fineness.

LIMITED TIME OFFER. See for yourself what Noxzema can do for your skin. This week you can get the large 83¢ jar of Noxzema for only 59¢ at any drug or department store.

W.M.S. WORKER IS HONORED

Encouraging reports were read at the fall rally of the Victoria Presbyterial of the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Mrs. M. R. Thomson, Vancouver, Presbyterial president, in the chair.

Mrs. Thomson told of the Dominion Council conference in Toronto in June. Work in all departments of the home and foreign mission fields was showing marked improvement and finances were steadily improving. Changes had been made by the council to simplify the work, and it had been decided to hold the annual meeting in the fall instead of in June.

Importance had been laid on the necessity of continuing to support the Golden Mite Boxes in aid of the retiring fund for missionaries.

An interesting incident at the rally was the presentation of an honorary life membership to Mrs. R. A. Brown, one of Victoria's pioneer citizens, who has been active in W.M.S. work for the past 60 years. Mrs. Thomson made the presentation and Mrs. A. A. MacKinnon introduced Mrs. Brown, who replied very gracefully, expressing sincere thanks to the Presbyterial for the honor bestowed upon her. Two verses of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" were sung.

The treasurer's report was read by Mrs. H. Warren, showing that the funds were well in advance of those of last year for the same period of time and that the allocation of $1,600 would be exceeded by the end of the year. Mrs. W. G. Reid, Montreal, gave a short address on W.M.S. work there, and closed the meeting with prayer. Mrs. E. Ridgway delighted the members with a vocal solo.

Y.M.C.A. Auxiliary's Tea Is Huge Success

Annual Event Nets $475; Speakers Praise Ladies' Work

The handsome sum of $457.14 rewarded the efforts of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. at their annual guest tea held in the institution yesterday afternoon, the affair being distinguished by the presence of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Hamber.

As in former years, the tea was a triumph of organization and co-operation, many of the service clubs and women's organizations of the city joining in this praiseworthy endeavour to assist a worthwhile object, and the various speakers all paid tribute to the community spirit evident in the undertaking.

THE SPEAKERS

Mrs. S. J. Willis, president of the auxiliary, welcomed the guests and expressed the auxiliary's gratitude to all those who had contributed in any way to the success of the tea. She touched upon the work of the auxiliary, which looked after the "house-keeping" end, and which this year had provided comfortable beds and other furniture for eight of the rooms, provided 60 chairs for the lecture room, a new gas range for the kitchen supplied linen, replaced worn-out mats in the gymnasium, and radio parts for the use of the camp.

Alderman W. T. Straith and Frank Paulding, on behalf of the directors and "Y" generally, expressed their thanks to the auxiliary and to all the friends who had assisted in the undertaking. Both spoke briefly of the value of the Y.M.C.A. to the boys of the city, Mr. Straith speaking particularly of the assistance in the way of free beds and board given to unemployed men and boys. He also read a typical letter of grateful appreciation from two boys who had thus been assisted.

In the unavoidable absence of Mayor McGavin, Alderman Ed. Williams brought greetings and good wishes from the city and added his meed of praise to the ladies. He touched upon the history of the Y.M.C.A. movement over the years, and commended the way it had stood for the inculcation of good citizenship and lofty ideals. Such a movement was worthy of the widest support, he maintained, and the city showed its appreciation by exempting the property from taxation.

MUSICAL NUMBERS

Arranged by Mrs. Duncan McBride, the delightful musical programme included two numbers by the Georgian Trio, "I Dream of Jeanie" and "O Swallow, Swallow," Mrs. G. Anstey playing the accompaniments, and two vocal solos by Fraser Lister, "Harlequin" (Sanderson) and "Coquetry" (Gustav Klem), with Mrs. C. C. Warn as accompanist.

The long tea tables presented a festive appearance against the background of bunting and flags. At the head table, white pottery boats were filled with handsome deep red and white chrysanthemums, and lighted by tall white tapers in silver candabra.

All of the other tables were also beautifully decorated by their sponsors with chrysanthemums of yellow, bronze and white, with tapers carrying out the colors of the organization. A notable exception was the Kinsmen table which had a novel and appropriate decoration of fruit, a centre three-tier stand and two lower epergnes being piled high with colorful fruit, while sprays of ivy connected the low candlesticks with their graduated tapers in shades of orange, peach and lemon.

A joint meeting of mission circles was held at the home of Mrs. M. L. McLennan, 311 Vancouver Street, on Tuesday evening, at which representatives from senior W.M.S. groups were welcomed. Members from Belmont United, Metropolitan, First United and the Chinese Mission Circle carried out the programme, which was convened by Mrs. W. H. Muncy, presbyterial secretary for mission circles. The devotional period was taken by First United, and led by Miss Marjorie Morris; the girls of the Chinese circle chose the hymns, while members of the Metropolitan circle contributed musical numbers. Miss Maureen Whitehouse sang, accompanied by Miss H. Sargeant, and Miss Rita Smith rendered violin solos, accompanied by Miss Laity. The speaker of the evening was Mrs. W. G. Wilson, whose interesting address dealt with the two world conferences of 46 nations at Edinburgh on "Faith and Order" and also at Oxford on "Life and Work." Refreshments were served by the hostess, and a social half-hour followed.

Society

Mrs. T. L. Thorpe-Doubble will act as tea hostess on Friday afternoon at the Arts and Crafts Exhibition. The exhibition is being held in the Belmont Building from 2 to 9 p.m. daily.

Today, at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Lennox, Rockland Avenue, Miss Jean Lennox entertained at a luncheon party in compliment to Miss Kathleen Wilson, for whom Miss Lennox will be one of the bridesmaids at the Lambert-Wilson wedding.

A number of his friends surprised Jack Ready at his home on Empress Avenue last Saturday evening in honor of his 21st birthday. During the evening whist was played and a buffet supper served, after which dancing was enjoyed. Among those present were the Misses Vina Whyte, Helen Thackeray, Lillian Barber, Audrey Fraser, Amelia Levy, Peggy and Dorothy Ready, Mrs. L. Jones, Messrs. Bill Court, Val Ramsdale, Bob Murray, Lloyd Jones and Eric Ready.

Mrs. Frederick Manning, Lulie Street, was hostess at the tea-hour yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Kathleen Wilson, who is to be married on Saturday. The tea table was centred with a crystal bowl filled with pink chrysanthemums flanked by tall pink tapers in crystal candelabra. The other guests were Mrs. C. E. Blaney, Mrs. J. D. Munro, Mrs. R. Maconachie, Mrs. J. Lister, Mrs. K. Dorman and Misses Eileen Pendray, Calla Goldsmith, Betty Bapty, Jean Lennox, Marianne Fraser and Marnie Merrick.

Mrs. J. Beadle was hostess at a surprise shower on Mrs. F. Rhodes (nee Gladys Cooper) at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. C. Morrish, 1246 Acton Street. The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white flowers and streamers. The table presented a very charming appearance, being decorated with pink and white asters in a silver basket and pink candles in silver sconces, and centred by a wedding cake. The evening was spent in singing and dancing. The bride was the recipient of many useful gifts, presented in a large decorated basket and brought in by Miss Joyce Morrish. The guests included Mrs. W. Renfrew, Mrs. F. Brown, Mrs. S. Osbourne, Mrs. W. Middleton, Miss E. Middleton, Mrs. B. Rose, Miss E. Couch, Mrs. E. Jane, Mrs. M. Wright, Mrs. E. Sparkes, Mrs. J. Lang, Mrs. E. Sladden, Mrs. F. Wilkinson, Mrs. M. Crabtree, Mrs. M. Burke, Mrs. H. Graham, Mrs. A. Restell, Mrs. S. Wetherell, Mrs. R. Corness, Miss E. Brown, Mrs. E. Larmen, Mrs. W. C. Morrish, Miss J. Morrish, Miss Duke, Mrs. J. Mrs. Howard Harman, York Place, will leave at the end of the month for Vancouver to join her husband, Mr. Harman, who left for Vancouver recently to make his home there.

Miss Amy Anderson and Miss Irene Watson were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday evening at the home of the latter, 633 Belton Avenue, in honor of Miss Lillian Painter, a November bride-elect. The gifts were concealed in a mauve, pink and gold decorated box. The evening was spent in games, the winners being Mrs. Youson, Mrs. Milley and Mrs. Tucker. Those present were: Mrs. Alex Painter, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Summerville, Mrs. Jack Angus, Mrs. Frank Jenkins, Mrs. John Cottle, Mrs. August Hiquebran, Mrs. James Tucker, Mrs. Cecil Milley, Mrs. Harry Youson, Mrs. Harry Watson, the Misses Lillian Painter, Amy Anderson, Marjorie Dixon, May Price, Doris and Peggy Burroughs, Violet Medley, Beatrice Williams, Beatrice Stromkins, Marion and Irene Watson.

Mrs. John J. Blair, 2749 Victor Street, entertained on Monday evening at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Maude Wheeler, whose mariage to Mr. Frederick Magee will take place early in November. The Hallowe'en motif was effectively used in the decorative scheme, orange and black being the colors of the witch, beside which stalked a huge black cat for good luck, the ruffled skirts of the witch concealing the many lovely gifts. During the evening Mrs. W. Drinkle delighted the guests with some of her humorous songs in costume. Supper was served in the dining-room from a lace-covered table centred with a silver basket of gallardias and French marigolds in shades of orange, before which stood a tiny bride and groom, while orange and black appointments completed the striking arrangements. Mrs. C. Magee and Mrs. S. Waldron presided at the urns, while assisting the hostess in serving were Mrs. Wesley Strickland and Mrs. William Blair. Those invited were: Mrs. J. Lewis, Mrs. C. Magee, Mrs. A. H. Dodd, Mrs. S. Waldron, Mrs. T. Rennie, Mrs. D. Obee, Mrs. W. Drinkle, Mrs. R. Spouse, Mrs. G. Heale, Mrs. W. Strickland, Mrs. W. Blair, Mrs. W. Magee Jr., Mrs. S. Blackburn, Mrs. W. Noel, Mrs. J. Knowles, Mrs. A. E. Sweeney, Mrs. D. Cuthbert, Miss Pearl Lewis and Miss Jean Dempster.

Daughters of England Lodge Primrose No. 32 will hold their annual bazaar Friday in the Sons of England Hall, to be opened at 2.30 p.m. by the District Deputy Mrs. C. Smith. The social meeting will be held in the evening at 7.30.

Alumnae Tea Attracted Many

At the annual bazaar and tea of the Jubilee Hospital Alumnae held yesterday afternoon in the Nurses' Home, the sum of $100 was realized.

The affair was opened by Mrs. T. W. Walker, wife of the superintendent of the hospital, who in her remarks pointed out that among the noteworthy achievements of the alumnae were the presentation of scholarships for post-graduate work, the maintenance of a six-bed ward in the hospital and Christmas cheer for the patients in this ward.

Mrs. J. H. Russell, president of the alumnae, welcomed the guests, and was assisted by Mrs. Walker, Mrs. W. H. Bullock-Webster and Miss Rossiter, as hostesses. The beautifully-appointed tea table was presided over by Mrs. Arthur Aylard, Mrs. H. G. Lancaster and Mrs. B. G. Goward. There were stalls of attractive novelties, home-made dainties, candy, handkerchiefs and a fish pond.

Mrs. Rose won the doll; Mrs. Walker and Mrs. A. L. Carruthers, the cake, and Mrs. T. J. Johnson the bridge cover. Mrs. A. Dowell was tea convener.

Greyhound Racing Records Lowered

Some eight months ago I wrote you of my memories—of from 15 to 17 years ago—concerning the early days of greyhound racing. I said I saw a brindled greyhoud, Tiger by name, roll up a world record for speed, at Hialeah, Florida, in 1922, by running a quarter-mile in 25 seconds. (A rate of one mile in a minute and 40 seconds. Some traveling.) In almost every sport, records are cut down from year to year. Now, Leslie Newcomb of Bostons brings my figures nearer up to date. As follows:

"The current record," he writes me, "for the quarter-mile is held by 'Jolly Irishman' who ran the distance at Miami, Florida, in 24 1-5 seconds. The Futurity record, for 495 yards is held by 'Karl Kelly' who ran it at New Orleans in 28 seconds."

If you have wondered just how fast a fleet dog can run, I have given you an answer. In the greyhound races, usually, the hounds are cooped in glass-or-wire-fronted cages. A stuffed rabbit, fastened to an electric cable, flashes past them. The front of the coops are opened automatically, so they may give chase. Every dog in the race—unless he has been tampered with—runs at his very best speed, in quest of the bouncing and elusive stuffed bunny.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel"
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1937

Astrologers read this as an adverse day in planetary direction. There are, however, good aspects of Saturn and Venus.

Industry is to benefit under this sway, which gives to workers certain advantages that stimulate their efforts. Before employers achieve co-operative policies great advantages will be gained by the unions.

Under this planetary direction, girls who enjoy dances more than studies should benefit through desultory flirtations. Just the right young man may become a suitor.

Women's clubs and other organizations should benefit today when philanthropy and the arts are well directed. Gain in civic power is forecast.

Accidents threaten under this configuration. It does not favor airplane ventures or speed in automobile driving. Lives are cheaper than ever before in this year of 1937.

Deeds or other legal papers should not be signed by those who trust the omens read in the skies. Caution should attend all business matters.

Although sports will gain in popularity, this is not a lucky date for football players, for many accidents are forecast.

Warning is given that Bohemian characteristics may gain a social entertainments, which encourage whatever is bizarre. Before reactionary influences attain domination, many scandals are prognosticated.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of much enjoyment. Business and professional affairs should be prosperous.

Children born on this day probably will be exceedingly individual and many may be supremely talented. Subjects of this sign may combine Libra with Scorpio characteristics. Artists belong to this configuration.

Sarah Bernhardt, French actress, was born on this day, 1844. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Leopold Damrosch, opera and orchestra director, 1832, and Franz Liszt, composer and pianist, 1811.

STORIES IN STAMPS

End of The Honeymoon Trail

They've been honeymooning at Niagara upwards of 125 years, these newlyweds, and still the parade continues. In fact, it's growing every year and the "repeats" are getting to be a sizeable piece of business in themselves.

The "repeats" are the couples who return to Niagara Falls anywhere from one to 50 years after their first trip. Invariably they ask the clerk of the local hotel for the same room they occupied on their wedding trip. Often aged couples return with their grandchildren and ask to see the register they signed perhaps 60 years previously.

Unique custom at the Niagara Falls hotels is that of cutting one's initials or name on the windows of the bridal suite. So many names have been cut on these windows that it was necessary to replace them. And invariably the newlyweds pose before the roaring cataract for wedding photos. "Repeats" returning years later often ask for new prints of these photos.

First Division Soccer Schedule Is Released

By PETE SALLAWAY

TAKE a tip, kids, from Joe Primeau. If you want to be a hockey star, he says, it doesn't hurt much to do a lot of roller-skating in summer. Primeau, in case it isn't fully remembered, retired from professional hockey a year ago, thereby breaking up that famed front rank of Toronto Maple Leafs—the original "kid line." When a youngster of 10, living in British Columbia, Primeau said there wasn't always enough winter to get in much ice skating "so I used to roller skate all summer long."

"Say, I must have used up a half-dozen pairs of skates one summer. It exercises the same muscles and I think it does you good if you want to play hockey," said Primeau. Today, at 31, the man who made plays for that high-scoring combination of Primeau - Charlie Conacher - Harvey Jackson, says he has "no regrets" for quitting although it's a game he "loves." He hasn't any ideas, though, of stepping into harness again. Leafs and Primeau went separate ways when hockey demanded more time than the dark haired centreman could afford away from his cement block business. Joe's a family man, with three children, so business won.

Asked if Connie Smythe, manager of Leafs, or either of his former forward mates ever talked about his returning to the National Hockey League war, Primeau said Conacher was the only one to remark on it and "then only jokingly." "Smythe and I haven't talked hockey since I quit last year," said Joe. "But once when I was talking to Charlie he said, 'You know, Joe, you were nuts to quit the game'."

Apart from his regular job, soon after he retired from hockey, Primeau wrote a sports column for a while in a Toronto paper. "The darn thing used to keep me up until all hours of the morning," he said. "But that wasn't what burned me up. It was when people used to ask who was 'ghosting' my column for me." Primeau predicted a great 1937-38 season for Conacher, the 210-pound wingman who broke his wrist soon after last season's start and never got going afterwards. He said Conacher "has more natural ability than anybody I ever saw."

When Dr. A. Robertson, member of the Australian cricket board of control, expressed doubt if England would ever again produce a team capable of winning the "Ashes" he started something. Cricketers throughout the country expressed surprise and a number declared Australia would be well advised to adopt a more humble attitude lest her representatives fail to hurdle the next test series to be played in England in 1938.

Don Bradman, who led Australia to victory against G. O. Allen's team last season, referred to Dr. Robertson's remark as "rubbish." It was unwise, he said, to enthuse over a temporary and hazardous supremacy. "England will win the ashes again and Australian cricket will be better for it," he added. W. M. Woodfull, former Australian captain, said "England was within an ace of victory last season. Our position is far from unassailable."

Rival promoters are bidding for the English Football Association cup final of 1938. A 21-year agreement with Wembley Stadium authorities runs oue in seven years. Alterations at Wembley, where thousands were turned away last year, would cost the English Football Association $300,000. On the other hand Brig.-Gen. A. C. Critchley, Alberta-born sportsman, has submitted an offer to extend the White City to accommodate 150,000 persons if the football association will consider having the game played there. Wembley now holds 93,000 persons.

LIBERALS WORK OUT

Elevens Battle For Three Cups In League Play

Phoenix, Leeming and Garrison Trophies At Stake; Two Matches Saturday

Seek Cup Tilts

Complete first half schedule for the five teams of the first division of the Victoria and District Football League was announced today by John Mesher, secretary. The elevens will meet in home and home matches with the same order being followed for the second half.

To the winner of each half will go a cup, while the two victors will meet at the end of the schedule for possession of the Garrison Cup, providing one club does not win each half. The Phoenix and Leeming Cups will be presented to the half winners.

Mesher stated today that no word had been received from Vancouver regarding Intercity League matches. To date Victoria United has played in one fixture, suffering defeat at the hands of North Shore here on Thanksgiving Day.

The Saturday League is attempting to arrange two Anscomb Cup matches with the Wednesday League. In this series all-star clubs from the two loops clash. The week-enders at present hold the trophy. However, the series cannot be arranged until the Wednesday League affiliates with the B. C. Commission.

In Saturday's two matches Esquimalt and the Saanich Thistles will clash at the Athletic Park with the Garrison and Victoria City playing at the Garrison grounds. The league-leading Victoria West have a bye.

Kill Cougar On the Hunt

Lawrence Wherry and Charlie Neaves Catch Big Mountain Cat "Unawares."

It is nothing new to track down a cougar with dogs and then shoot it from a tree, but it is very seldom that one hears of a perfectly normal wildcat being caught unaware and shot, although in this particular instance the animal was probably so engrossed in getting a breakfast that it gave no thought to danger.

However, that is what Lawrence Wherry and Charlie Neaves, local sportsmen, experienced early Monday morning. The scene was Niagara Canyon in the Malahat District. The hunters were after deer, and as it was foggy they hunted close and slowly. They emerged into a ravine branching off the Canyon and suddenly upon the still morning atmosphere there came a knocking sound. The hunters were puzzled at first, but then decided that it was a buck scratching his horns against a tree or something.

The next thing that fell upon their ears were gusty snorts, which made the pair fairly certain there were deer present. But that there was more than one they were sure for the snorting sounds came from three different locations. The snorts struck the hunters as being funny, for they had never known deer to snort when scenting man.

The two stood still, scouring the ravine. Then Wherry saw a movement. Looking again he saw it was a cougar crouching over a log looking back over its shoulder up the other side of the ravine from whence the snorts came. The cat appeared to be totally unaware of their presence. It was a large female. Wherry whipped his gun to his shoulde and fired at the cat. It was only a flesh wound, but it galvanized the huge beast into action. She bounded away to safety with large springy leaps, but Wherry fired again, and this time he knew he had scored. The cat continued on, however, and for a while was lost from sight. Neaves finally found her curled up in a hole and finished the job with another shot.

The deer was nowhere to be seen after the hunters had killed the mountain lion.

CHICAGO STAR BATTLES SCOT

Bob Jessen Will Meet McIntyre in Semi-main Attraction on Mat Card

Bob Jessen, who hails from Chicago, will make his Victoria debut Saturday night at the Tillicum gym when he tackles Donald McIntyre, Scottish exponent of wrestling, in the semi-main go on the card to be offered by Promotor Fred Richardson.

Pat O'Shooker, an Irish fellow, whose fine showmanship has been a box office boost all up and down the coast, has been booked for the spotlight bout of 10 six-minute rounds. He will meet Abe Yourist, New York.

Two newcomers will be secured for the special event. A preliminary tussle, bringing together two local boys, will open the show at 8.45.

Bays and Navy Win Midweek Football

Spencers Bow To Defeat At Hands of Rivals and Sailors Beat Gorge Hotel

For a time yesterday the Navy's unbeaten record looked as though it was in danger of being shattered when Eddie Rutledge's Gorge Hotel footballers put up a grand fight but were finally beaten 2 to 1. Played on the Admirals Road pitch, this match featured the Hayward Cup programme staged yesterday by the Victoria Wednesday Football League.

At the Athletic Park, Hudson's Bay humbled the rival Spencer's eleven, 4 to 1, to take over second berth.

Held scoreless until late in the final stanza by the ten-man Gorge Hotel squad, the sailors took over the lead when Bruce Robinson crashed the scoring spotlight by registering on a penalty kick, which was followed by Wilf DeCosta's tally minutes later. This put the Navy in front 2 to 0. Just before the closing whistle "Barney" Barnswell accounted for the Hotel's lone tally.

In spite of the fact they lacked a full-strength lineup, Rutledge's lads gave the Navy plenty of opposition. The feature of this match was the excellent manner in which both netminders, Louis Decosta and Charlie Saddler, guarded their goals.

Taking a penalty kick given against Coates for hands, Bruce Robinson, Navy centre half, sagged the hemp to usher in his team's scoring. The game was in its late stages when the goal came and some minutes later Wilf Decosta scored on brother Eddie's rebound, picking the net's corner.

Still fighting hard, the Gorge boys surged into the Navy territory soon after, where they succeeded in crashing onto the scoreboard. Fullback Alf Geoghegan took the ball up the field and passed to Barnswell on the wing, who countered with a first time effort. It was the first goal that has been scored against DeCosta since the start of the cup series.

Throughout the hotelmen gave their opponents many anxious moments. Although Coates gave away two penalties, the first being muffed by Eddie DeCosta, he proved a great defensive asset to the losers.

Percy Sharrington refereed.

SAFETY TOPIC OF ADDRESS

Victoria Motorcycle Club Members Hear E. C. Smith, A.M.A. Organizer

"Ride safely and safeguard your sport." That was the topic of an address made last night by E. C. Smith, competition organizer and secretary of the American Motorcycle Association, before a large gathering of motorcyclists in the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Smith indicated that the A.M.A. today is conducting a continent-wide safety campaign with its 785 affiliated clubs, and noted that very encouraging results have already materialized since the recent instigation of the scheme.

The manner in which this campaign is being conducted follows: Each affiliate club reports the mileage ridden by members and every accident, with awards to be made to the club with the cleanest record. He noted that since the campaign was ushered in 500 clubs on the continent have covered 61,800,000 miles without a single major accident, a record that speaks well for the success of the scheme.

Mr. Smith emphasized that if the 35 per cent of automobile drivers who are credited for the unsafe condition on the highways today had learned to ride and drive a motorcycle, the accident toll would be considerably minimized, as the motorcycle rider has a better conception of balance, and is a better judge of distance and speed.

FEW ARE RECKLESS

"There are among the motorcycle riders a few who have given the sport a blackeye due to unwarranted recklessness," the A.M.A. official intimated, "but most of these are unattached and have not had the sane rules drilled into them like affiliate members." In his opinion these riders are directly responsible for the prejudice of parents against motorcycles.

In closing he urged each rider to appoint himself as a one-man committee to make himself adhere to safe driving and also paid high tribute to the Victoria Motorcycle Club for winning the honor roll presented by the A.M.A. to the club with the most perfect record over a three-month period throughout the continent.

After the address he showed many interesting movies on motorcycle activities in the States. In these reels were wa-

Ice Gossip

Too bad Lionel Conacher, hockey's "Big Train," had to retire from Montreal Maroons or there might have been three Conachers in the big league at the same time and all playing for different teams. Brother Charlie is with Leafs, while brother-the-youngest Roy is trying out with Boston Bruins at Hershey, Pa.

Here's a hot tip: Look for a fast start from Toronto Maple Leafs when the season gets under way. Manager Connie Smythe likes his team to leap in front, then there's no making up ground in the March stretch drive. For that reason, the Smythian strategy is to work his players into perfect condition in camp.

Goalie Earl Robertson of New York Americans can tell you Happy Day, though a veteran, still packs plenty of power in that shot. Happy let one go in practice at the Calgary camp and it caught Robertson on the knee-cap. Result: Robertson gave way to Harry Braithwaite, a young Toronto amateur, for the rest of yesterday's session.

A note in high C: Archie McTeer, Calgary referee who gets a chance as an arbiter this year in the N.H.L., will handle the whistle in all six games for the tour by Rangers and Amerks of the prairie provinces. The teams open the tour Saturday at Calgary.

Coach King Clancy of Montreal Maroons is looking for Maurice Croghan, a young Montreal amateur, to step into the spot vacated by Lionel Conacher on the defence.

That united holdout front of Maroons' "green line" has simmered to a one-man stand. Gus Marker and Herbie Cain have agreed to sign up but Maroons still have to catch Bob Gracie, fleet centreman and high scorer of the ace line. Gracie, from his Toronto home, announced his intention of doing a little sniping—not goals, but ducks.

It's Captain Art Chapman for another year for the man who goes to make up one-third of Amerks' high-scoring line of Chapman-Sweeney Schriner-Lorne Carr. Red Dutton, leader of the New York team, said last night Chapman had been reappointed team captain.

Maple Leafs, training at Galt, Ont., had two casualties on their hands today, with one of a minor nature. Pete Langelle, who played with Winnipeg Monarchs last year when the Manitoba team captured the Memorial Cup, wrenched his shoulder. The more serious accident, however, was that to Defenceman Reg. Hamilton, who suffered a bad gash over the ankle when struck by a skate.

WEST ROAD IN CAGE VICTORY

Come From Behind To Defeat Navy Quintette 52 to 38 at the High School

Outscored in the initial half, but coming through in a great rally in the final session, West Road pulled the fat from the fire to whip the Navy 52 to 38 in a senior B hoop clash at the High School last night.

The rest interval saw the sailors leading 25 to 13, but West Road found the basket for the point difference in the last canto to forge to the front. Karl Young and Ralph Michell led the scorers with 17 and 20 points respectively.

A smart Canadian Scottish quintette defeated the Chinese Students, 33 to 13, in the intermediate A boys' division. The Highlanders were out in front 14 to 5 at the halfway mark and were never headed. Walter Fricker and J. Mylrea took the scoring honors with 11 points each.

Gainers Superiors took the women's encounter, 30 to 23, from the Cardinals. Mary Peden with 11 points was high scorer for the winners, while Virginia Hall and Jane Trotter led the loser's scoring totals.

Wally Stipe refereed.

War Admiral Is Out Of Classic

LAUREL, Md. — George Conway, trainer of War Admiral, king of the three-year-olds, said yesterday the colt would not run in the $7,500 added Maryland Handicap Saturday.

War Admiral has been out of racing since he split a hoof in winning the Belmont Stakes about four months ago. He previously had won the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. The decision against racing War Admiral moved Heelfly, T. P. Morgan's speedster, up to favorite position.

Victoria Fighter Given Sound Whipping By Wenstob At Vancouver

VANCOUVER—Alberta's Eddie Wenstob today found out what it's like to win a championship fight and still not be champion—at least not in the committee rooms of the boxing commission claiming title jurisdiction over Canada's fight game.

The Viking puncher pounded out a 12-round decision over Victoria's Sonny Buxton here last night in a bout billed for the Canadian light-heavyweight boxing championship by two western associations and disapproved by two eastern commissions.

The Western Boxing and Wrestling Federation with headquarters at Edmonton and the Vancouver Boxing and Wrestling Commission put their official okay on the scrap and today accorded Wenstob championship recognition.

The joker came when Frank Hogan of Montreal, president of both the Canadian Boxing and Wrestling Federation and the National Boxing Association, turned thumbs down—on sanction and recognition.

The Alberta battler knocked Buxton to his knees 11 times during the 12-round route of last night's fight, to win an unanimous decision over the Vancouver Island slugger.

OPENS STONG

Buxton started strong in the opening rounds and brought blood from Wenstob's nose, but the Albertan softened his opponent during the fifth round with a long looping right to the ribs, and loosed a two-handed attack in the sixth to put Sonny on his knees six times.

Eddie again sent the Victorian to his knees three times in the ninth and twice in the final session.

The decision of the referee, Gil Martin, gave Wenstob seven rounds, five to Buxton, and Tom Moore, judge, credited Eddie with six, Sonny five and one even. The other judge, Tom Burke, marked seven for the Viking puncher, three for the Victorian and two even.

In the semi-final bout, little Al Spina of Portland successfully defended his Pacific Northwest featherweight championship in 10 rounds against the threat of Eddie Ryan, Vancouver challenger. Spina scaled 128 and Ryan 125.

The Portland battler had an edge throughout, scoring repeatedly with lefts to the Vancouver boy's face. Ryan rallied in the later rounds but failed to overcome the advantage piled up by Spina from the first to the seventh round and the Portland fighter was given a unanimous three-way decision.

Ernie Swartz, 128-pounder of Vancouver, scored a three-round knockout victory over Jack Curley of Portland in a four-round preliminary, while another bout saw Eddie Norris of Vancouver decision Julius Troll of Vancouver in a four-round 135-pound class bout.

Jimmy Chapman, Edmonton, 126-pounder, was given a four-round decision over "Bomber" Bailey of Portland, and Jackie Pettipiece, 141, scored a technical knockout over Joe Moody, 135, in another four-round preliminary.

CHEMAINUS—Harry Renfree of Emmanuel Church, Victoria, was chosen president at the annual gathering of the Baptists of Vancouver Island, in conference in the Calvary Church, Chemainus, on Saturday.

A large number of delegates were present when the retiring president, Rev. C. R. Barner of Nanaimo, called on Rev. Dr. A. S. Imrie to conduct the opening devotional period, after which Rev. Dr. F. W. Dafoe of Chemainus welcomed delegates from First, Emmanuel and Douglas Street churches, Victoria, First Church, Nanaimo, and Chemainus.

Mrs. Don Smith, the vice-president, conducted the women's session, when Mrs. G. Bishop led the devotional period, following which Miss M. Bock of the Oriental Home and School in Victoria gave an interesting address on her work among the Japanese people and outlined the work she has recently commenced at many points between Victoria and Nanaimo.

Concluding the afternoon session, J. Macconachie of Temple Church, Toronto, extended greetings from the Ontario and Toronto Baptist conventions.

During the business session which followed the supper hour the following additional officers were elected: First vice-president, Mrs. Angus Galbraith, Victoria; second vice-president, Mrs. M. G. Troop, Nanaimo; third vice-president, Mrs. J. Patterson, Chemainus, while the secretary-treasurer, Frank H. Humphrey, was re-elected for a fourth term.

Don Smith opened the evening session with a song service. The main speakers of the evening were Rev. F. W. McKinnon, who spoke on the "Vision of the Church," and Rev. G. A. Reynolds, who took as his topic "Abiding and Abounding."

The next gathering will be held at Emmanuel Church, Victoria, in the spring.

Island Coal Output Gains

The output of coal from Vancouver Island mines rose sharply in September, as compared with last year, and was 56 per cent of the total British Columbia output, according to the monthly report of James S. Dickson, chief inspector of mines for the province.

Total production at the island mines is given as 70,142 tons, against 56,742 tons in September, 1936.

In the Nicola-Princeton district, output was down from 14,109 to 12,130 tons, but in the East Kootenay area there was a 10,000-ton gain from 32,809 to 42,827 tons.

For the province as a whole September output was 125,415 tons against 104,282 tons last year.

POWER SITE IS LOCATED

Nechake River Has Potential 1,000,000 Horsepower, Engineers Find

Surveyors of the provincial waterworks branch, studying electrical power possibilities of the Fraser River system, have located a site where development of another 1,000,000 horsepower could be carried out on the Nechako River, tributary of the Fraser, it was indicated today.

A complee report on the new power site is being compiled, it is understood, to supplement reports published last year.

Power would be developed in the scheme by diversion of the Nechako River westward to flow eventually into the Kimsquit River and into Dean Channel. It would involve construction of about 10 miles of tunnel.

The water branch has been studying power possibilities on the Fraser River for several years. A brochure on the subject was published last year showing potential millions of electrical horsepower on the river.

PAY TRIBUTE TO DR. TOLMIE

Young Liberals Honor Memory of Former Premier

At a meeting of the Twentieth Century Young Liberal Association of Victoria, held at Liberal headquarters Tuesday night, tribute was paid to the late Hon. S. F. Tolmie, and one minute silence was observed in honor of his memory.

H. A. Beckwith, who has undertaken to coach the Debaters' Group, spoke briefly to the meeting, urging all those interested in public speaking to enroll in the group. A preliminary meeting was urged to set the regular meeting nights and to decide what plan of study to pursue. The meeting unanimously passed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Beckwith for undertaking to coach the group.

A report of the sports committee by E. W. Bourque denoted the keen enthusiasm of the members in this line of the association's activities.

Elections were held to fill the four vacancies on the executive, Mr. MacGary being appointed returning officer. The four elected were: A. Corby, E. W. Bourque, Miss L. MacKay and Miss A. Hannay.

H. M. Coates spoke on the recent visit of President Roosevelt, quoting from editorials which referred to him as the "champion of forgotten men and women."

A. Corby, speaking on the proposed Alaska Highway, mentioned the advantage it would be to tourist trade development. He also said that commerce would greatly benefit by such a road.

IMPERIALS TO FILL IN FORMS

Visit of British Official to Investigate Problems Discussed at Meeting

The approaching visit to Canada of J. R. Griffin, organizing and assistant secretary of the British Legion, engaged the attention of members of the Pro Patria Branch of the Canadian Legion at Tuesday's general meeting. Mr. Griffin's visit will be made in connection with problems confronting ex-Imperials in Canada, this being largely due to representations made last year by General Ross, Dominion president of the Canadian Legion.

C. A. Gill, secretary, informed the meeting that there is at present in the Pro Patria and other Legion offices in this area, a supply of Imperial Division information forms, which Dominion headquarters of the Canadian Legion desire to be completed by all Imperials, whether members of the Legion or not, in order that the Dominion Command through Mr. Griffin may place before the British authorities in London a complete picture of the hardships which confront Imperials in this country.

The unit supported the Community Chest drive, but at the same time endorsed a resolution of the District Council which was against the Remembrance Day Committee being affiliated with the Community Chest. The branch supported the District Council in its feeling that the Poppy Campaign instituted for so many years must continue regardless of any other drive.

The meeting was informed that Poppy Day will be November 6 and members volunteered to sell poppies on that day. The invitation of Christ Church Cathedral authorities to attend the Remembrance Service on November 1 at 3 was accepted. On Armistice Day all ex-servicemen in the city are asked to fall in on Humboldt Street between Government and Douglas Streets at 10.15, so that they will be ready to move off at 10.40 to the War Memorial site. General Sir Percy Lake will lead the parade.

Eleven new members were welcomed into the branch by President A. E. Hull. Votes of condolence were passed to the families of two deceased members.

Bruce McKelvie Comments On Jail Camp For Convicted Men

Bruce A. McKelvie, speaking to Ward Three Conservative Association last night in the Campbell Building, criticized the plan to establish "by a government which promises 'work and wages', a jail camp for single unemployed men convicted of begging."

Members of the administration must have a short memory, he said, adding that Hon. George S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, was in Ottawa talking with the federal authorities about winter camps for the unemployed, but only a few years ago the Liberals had criticized the Tolmie government for the same thing.

Mr. McKelvie also attacked the government for failing to make public its proposed submissions to the Rowell commission on financial changes. The public, he said, had a right to know what the government planned to say.

Speed with which the impending federal by-election had been called was noted by Robert D. Harvey, president of the Victoria Conservative Association, in a brief address urging the party to make a careful choice of its next candidate.

In the election of officers John Taylor was chosen unanimously as chairman. E. E. Goady-Johnson was named vice-chairman and Mrs. M. J. Shepherd secretary, with the following as delegates to the central executive, Mrs. J. Taylor, Mr. Coady-Johnson, E. Braggs and A. Scobie.

William Duck, retiring chairman, paid a tribute to the late Hon. S. F. Tolmie.

Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Hamber View Work Of Making Poppies

War veterans of the city who are engaged in making poppies and wreaths for Remembrance Day were congratulated on their work by Lieutenant-Governor Hamber and Mrs. Hamber during an official visit to the Red Cross Work Shop on Johnson Street yesterday.

Displaying a keen interest in the work which was explained to him by Alderman S. H. Okell, manager of the workshops, His Honor was interested to learn of the wide distribution of poppies from Victoria. As material evidence of his support of the work he placed a substantial order with the committee before leaving.

Members of the Lieutenant-Governor's party were: His private secretary, A. M. D. Fairbairn; Commander C. H. R. Slingsby, chairman of the Remembrance Day committee; General Sir Percy Lake member of the workshop committee; Mrs. Alfred Carmichael and Mrs. J. L. C.M.A. Head For Immigration

B.C. Needs Larger Home Market, Capt. F. C. Brown Tells Meeting

Immigration was put forward as the only solution for the problems of British Columbia and Canada as a whole in an address at a luncheon meeting of the Victoria branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association yesterday by Capt. F. C. Brown, Vancouver, Dominion president of the C.M.A.

The reopening of relief camps under proper supervision, with discipline and with the exclusion of agitators was also advocated by Capt. Brown, who, with the exception of John Hendry in 1910, is the only British Columbian to have held the C.M.A. presidency.

In an address in which he urged "better balance" in industry, trade and population, he pointed to Ontario as an example of the results of a large population in developing both industry and agriculture. The province, he said, produced and consumed one-third of all the agricultural output of Canada within its own borders.

HOME MARKET NEEDED

At a time when new sources of raw materials were being found outside Canada and were replacing Canadian exports, and when war in the Orient was cutting down British Columbia's lumber and fish trades, new markets must be found at home, said Capt. Brown.

The stimulation of industry by new population was also the only solution to the problem of the thousands of trained young men who were coming out of colleges and universities, he said.

Canada already had railways built with the idea of a population of 25,000,000 people and a system of government too costly for the needs of only 11,000,000. The Dominion's income tax revenue was not sufficient to pay more than half the interest and amortization charges on the national debt, he said.

Capt. Brown attacked the sale of the control of British Columbia resources to foreign interests, and the export of raw materials for processing abroad.

"The first good iron ore deposits that we hear of near tidewater are immediately bought by Japanese capital," he commented.

On the question of unemployment, Capt. Brown said: "It really is a tragedy that we should have to put our young men into jail for begging. We would do far better to keep them in some employment that was constructive.

"I still advocate relief camps. It is by far the best environment they can get, but they must be properly supervised, they must have discipline and agitators must be removed."

He suggested as relief projects the opening of a road connection between Ashcroft and Clinton to feed the Pacific Great Eastern Railway, the opening of the interior of British Columbia by new roads and the construction of an outlet to the ocean for the Peace River. This last, he said, was a much more necessary project than an Alaska Highway.

Alec McKelvie, Vancouver, chairman of the British Columbia division of the C.M.A., spoke briefly at the luncheon, advocating better relations between employers and employees, and warning against Canada attempting to follow the policies of the United States with regard to vast public works.

R. W. Mayhew receive the congratulations of the meeting on his election to the vice-presidency of the B.C. section, and thanked Capt. Brown for his address.

W. B. Wilson, president of the Victoria branch, was in the chair.

Board Friction Report Denied

No Personal Reasons Behind Police Commission Change, Mayor Says

Any reports to the effect that Judge H. H. Shandley sought release from his duties as a police commissioner because of friction between himself and other members of the board were denied by Mayor Andrew McGavin today.

He planned to discuss the police commission issue as well as the city's refunding scheme in his radio address to the citizens over CFCT tomorrow evening at 6.30, the mayor said today.

"I have heard it said that Judge Shandley would like to withdraw from the board because he could not see eye to eye with the other members," the mayor stated. "Nothing is further from the truth. Judge Shandley has cooperated 100 per cent with the other members of the commission. There has never been any friction of any kind. Both Judge Shandley and Magistrate Hall have given full support to myself as chairman. Judge Shandley has carried out his duties faithfully and well, but ever since first taking his seat on the board he has voiced his objection to the legislation which compels him to sit as a member."

DRIVE WILL HELP MANY

Friendly Help Will Benefit From Community Chest Campaign

Age does not always bring security. Often older people find difficulty in meeting the rapid tempo of present-day life. Perplexed, to whom can they turn for help? Their problems may be purely domestic—a child gone wrong—a daughter's home on the verge of collapse—perhaps, for some reason they can but vaguely determine. Their own home may be breaking under them.

The Friendly Help Welfare Association gives little in the way of financial assistance, but its trained workers are expert diagnosticians of family ills. To them go many persons who know not where else to turn. They are the domestic architects whose objective is to build, restore and preserve that most precious social and economic unit—the home.

The Friendly Help Welfare Association works in close association with each of the 23 Community Chest charities. It is staffed by those specially trained in appreciation and understanding of human needs and difficulties.

The Greater Victoria Community Chest drive from November 1 to 8 will give everyone an opportunity to lend a helping hand to these social agencies whose welfare work is most necessary to the less fortunate of the community.

Fine Acts For Y.M.C.A. Show

Over 300 Performers To Take Part in Circus Tomorrow and Saturday

A monster cast of over 300 performers will take part in the annual Y.M.C.A. circus, which will be held in the Horse Show Building at the Willows tomorrow and Saturday evenings at 8.15. The committee in charge of the show rates it as the best ever staged by the local association.

Two of the continent's best acrobatic acts will headline the two-hour performance. Eddie Gross of Seattle, "America's super acrobat," will take part in one-half of the double-feature bill, and Gita and Per, a team of slack wire performers and hand-balancers, are listed on the other half.

Gross is one of the finest amateur exponents of tumbling on the continent, while Gita and Per have a nation-wide reputation for slack-wire stunts, which have been performed by few other acrobats.

Comedy will play a major part in the show as it has done in former years. A "Crazy Nurse," featuring two "crazy" people, is a sure guarantee for laughs. Len Oliver, veteran tumbler, who coaches the Y youngsters in the precarious art of flip-flapping, will star in the comedy performance with a stooge.

Twenty of the Y.M.C.A. star gymnasts will take part in pyramid building, which is billed as a "Daring Demonstration, Defying Gravity at Dizzy Heights." Although strictly amateurs, the boys have a group of set-ups that would compare well with any professional act.

Something new in body exhibition will feature 12 of the Y.M.C.A. senior leaders corps in gold plaques. Several striking poses with spotlight effect are among the items in their act.

The Victoria Riding Academy has several "dark horse" performances on their part of the programme, in addition to many other interesting equestrian feats.

Two bands will be in attendance at the circus. Tickets are on sale at the Y.M.C.A.

Harold Funston, Stewart, will speak on work among the miners, with Rev. W. D. Reid and Rev. W. M. Kannawin. Tomorrow morning the Synod budget will be discussed and Sunday school and young people's reports given.

ARTS DISPLAY OPENED HERE

Hon. John Hart Dedicates Well-balanced Exhibition In Belmont Building

Covering almost every phase of pictorial and plastic art, the 28th annual exhibition of the Island Arts and Crafts Society was formally dedicated in the Belmont Building, Government Street, yesterday afternoon and will remain open until Wednesday evening.

Art was an international language and came to its greatest fruition in interpreting the thought of one people or race to another, Hon. John Hart, Acting Premier and Minister of Finance, told an audience of 150 art-lovers in an inaugural address yesterday.

Art, he said, must transcend the opposing factions and strife of public and business life, and with a unified conception of beauty must unite mankind in a common love of all that was beautiful.

Victoria, said Mr. Hart, had reason to be proud of artists, both her own and from elsewhere, who had helped spread the knowledge of the city's natural beauty by their work.

He paid tribute to the Island Arts and Crafts Society for its work in stimulating both the work of the city's artists and the appreciation of the public for art.

BALANCED EXHIBITION

The exhibition, which will be open each afternoon and evening from 2 to 9, except Sunday, shows a well-balanced selection of the work of the island's painters, black and white artists, sculptors and crafts workers.

The pictorial section, which fills five well-lighted rooms on the second floor of the building, ranges from the internationally-known oils of Emily Carr, through a well-selected collection of portraits in oils, water color and black and white, to the promising work of a number of newcomers.

A feature of the display is the return of several workers who have not exhibited for some years. In all there are 99 water colors, 23 oils and 19 pastel and black and white subjects.

The crafts section, in another series of rooms, houses a display of many sorts of handiwork, notably an excellent exhibition of pottery.

W.I. DOING FINE WORK

District Reports At Conference Show Varied Community Service

Evidence of the active interest of rural women in such matters as public health, child welfare, community betterment, legislation and agriculture, was contained in the interesting reports presented at this morning's session of the South Vancouver Island Women's Institute district conference. Mrs. William Peden presided.

Mrs. Douglas Bullen, convener of public health and child welfare, reported that the Solarium, Cowichan Health Centre and similar institutions, have been assisted by the institutes and various public health measures have been supported.

PHYSICAL CULTURE

Mrs. V. S. MacLachlan and Mrs. T. C. Robson contributed several valuable suggestions to the discussion. Mrs. J. L. White told of the value of physical culture classes started by Victoria W.I., and Mrs. William Peden spoke of the physical education inaugurated by the government throughout the province.

Mrs. E. F. Arnold, district convener of agriculture, gave an interesting talk on wool, explaining how to wash and prepare the raw product. She also told of drying corn on the cob instead of canning it in the ordinary way, and spoke of the making of soap from beef dripping.

Mrs. Maude Hammond demonstarted the newest spinning wheel, which can be attached to a sewing machine.

Mrs. A. Stannard, home economics convener, spoke of work done along these lines. Cowichan W.I. holds classes to teach girls to judge home economics exhibits.

Mrs. M. E. Kinloch, as convener of the committee on legislation, gave a brief report. Mrs. Robson commended the suggestion that institutes invite a member of the municipal bodies to explain the municipal laws in force in the vicinity of the respective institutes.

Reports of various institutes were given and comments and discussion on the various reports proved interesting.

The gathering voted to send a letter of sympathy to Mrs. W. G. Booth, a former president, who is ill in Alberni.

Delegates were guests of the Victoria W.I. at luncheon at Spencer's today.

DEPUTY SPEAKS

At yesterday afternoon's session, Mr. J. B. Munro, deputy Minister of Agriculture, addressed the gathering, congratulating the institutes upon the work accomplished during the last year. He spoke in praise of the valuable community influence exercised by the W.I., and was warm in praise of the junior club work on the lower mainland.

At the close of the afternoon session, the delegates visited the premises of the Growers' Wine Company Ltd., at Lake Hill, where they were received by Mr. Herbert Anscomb and shown over the plant. Later they went to the Lake Hill Institute Hall, where the business session was continued and reports of institutes in outlying districts were read.

The delegates were guests of Lake Hill Institute at supper, the beautifully-decorated tables being supplied with a bountiful repast, and the appreciation of the guests was expressed by Mrs. William Peden. Regret was expressed that ill-health prohibited Mrs. J. D. Gordon, a former provincial president, from attending the meeting.

Randolph Scott In Oil Romance

A romance flavored by the music of Jerome Kern, set in the colorful period of the middle 1800's, is the theme of "High, Wide and Handsome," which comes tomorrow to the Dominion Theatre.

Book and lyrics were written by Oscar Hammerstein II, and the film was directed by Rouben Mamoulian.

In "High, Wide and Handsome" Irene Dunne is a young and light-hearted carnival singer, while Randolph Scott is a forceful young Pennsylvania farmer who has begun drilling for oil on his farm, making the first oil drill in the country. These two, from widely-different backgrounds, meet, fall in love, and marry. On their wedding day, oil is discovered in Scott's well, and he plunges into development of his find, finding but little time for his new wife.

greasy pitch at the enclosure, the department store factions were unable to give their best performances due to the uncertain footing afforded. Morry Speller, on left wing position, accounted for Hudson Bay's three opening goals and was instrumental in getting the only other one—all of which happened in the initial session—but Manager Garnot Baker's Diamond S lads barged onto the scoreboard in the last stanza to avert a shutout.

Manager Cyrus Nicholls' green and gold-sweatered Bay squad hammered relentlessly at Spencer's end during the first half, and in spite of the treacherous surface executed a number of excellent combination plays that won for them a trio of markers. Speller pushed Fish's rebound over the line early in the game to open the score and at the 20-minute mark Les Kennedy hoisted the leather to Fish on the left wing, who in turn centred to Fogden. He failed to connect with the ball and Speller dashed in, retrieved, then first-timed high into the net. Ten minutes later Fogden, inside right, crossed to Fish. The right-winger piloted the ball far down the field and then crossed to in front of the posts, where Speller carried on with a hard drive that just evaded the desperate lunge of Goalie Stewardson. The game was 40 minutes old when McBride booted Speller's high lob into the hemp.

Spencers, on the other hand, were quite ragged in this frame. Their passes were going anywhere but the right place. Their thrusts at the Bays' goal were few and not very dangerous.

Both teams were somewhat ragged in the final canto. Spencers were the aggressors for the most part, and were harmonizing a little better, but they encountered an unconquerable defence in Wyatt and O'Connell, who averted many threats. However, 10 minutes after the resumption of play Bobby Brown got in close and from a difficult angle shot for the goal. The leather hit the opposite post and rebounded into the net. This saved Spencers from a complete shellacking. When unable to penetrate the defence the Diamond S lads tried with long shots, but most of them were wild.

The Bays' attacks in this half did not have the previous punch, although a wide-open defence a couple of times would have resulted in tallies had it not been for the able net-minding of Stewardson.

Dave McMillan refereed.

The teams were:

Hudson's Bay—Renfrew, Wyatt, O'Connell, Williamson, Kennedy, Oakman, Fish, McBride, Preston, Fogden and Speller.

Spencers — Stewardson, Raeside, L. Bradley, Chapman, L. Bradley, Brown, Ball, Politano, Collins, Jeffery and McMillan.

ORIENT COLOR IN "SHANGHAI"

Charles Boyer Woos Loretta Young In Paramount Film At Columbia

Fresh from his triumphs in "Private Worlds" and "Break of Hearts," Charles Boyer launches his new bid for starring fame in Paramount's "Shanghai," which comes today to the Columbia Theatre.

With the colorful and mysterious capital of the Orient for its background, the picture tells the story of two who dared hatred and prejudice for love and won. Loretta Young is starred with Boyer.

Boyer is the mystery man of Shanghai. Unaided, he has shot from the gutter of the great metropolis to the pinnacle of financial power. Unimpeded by love, he has kept the secret of his origin from even his closest friends.

But when Loretta Young crosses his path, he knows suddenly that his thirst for power has blinded him to the most precious things in the world. He pays devoted courtship to her, wins her heart, and even as he does prepares the coup which will make him complete master of the Orient.

MUSICAL FILM AT CAPITOL

Deanna Durbin Starred In "100 Men and a Girl"

"100 Men and a Girl" starts a week's run at the Capitol Theatre today. Deanna Durbin, one of the greatest singing finds of the radio and screen, and the inimitable conductor, Leopold Stokowski, are starred.

Fitted into the story are Mozart's "Alleluia" and the aria "Libiama," from Verdi's "Traviata." These and the popular song, "It's Raining Sunbeams," are superbly sung by Deanna.

The playing of the symphony orchestra under Stokowski's direction is a revelation in the art of conducting.

Such gems as Tschaikowski's Fifth Symphony, the Second Liszt Rhapsody and Wagner's Lohengrin are presented in this picture.

An excellent supporting cast includes Adalphe Menjou, Alice Brady, Eugene Pallette, Mischa Auer and others.

DOMINION THEATRE

"Danger—Love at Work," now at the Dominion Theatre, is a fast-action farce from the typewriters of James Edward Grant and Ben Markson, and co-stars Miss Sothern, Jack Haley, Mary Boland and Edward Everett Horton. A big cast of outstanding merrymakers is featured, including John Carradine, Walter Catlett, Bennie Bartlett, Alan Dinehart, Etienne Girardot, E. Clive and The Pixilated Sisters.

Rider Haggard Epic At Atlas

Zulus, armed with flame-tipped spears, battling to the death, with the lives of five European adventurers, four men and a woman, and the wealth of the fabulous mine of Ophir at stake, furnish the big scene in "King Solomon's Mines," the Gaumont version of the Rider Haggard romance, which opens at the Atlas Theatre tomorrow, with a distinguished cast headed by Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Paul Robeson, Anna Lee, Roland Young and John Loder.

The second feature is "The Hit Parade," starring Francis Langford.

"NAVY BLUES" PLAZA SHOW

Mary Brian and Dick Purcell In Republic Light Comedy

Heralded as one of the season's outstanding light comedies, Republic's "Navy Blues" opens at the Plaza Theatre today with Mary Brian, Dick Purcell, Warren Hymer and Lucille Gleason.

The original story by Gordon Kahn and Eric Taylor centres about the exploits of Rusty, a sailor, played by Dick Purcell, in transforming a prim librarian (Mary Brian) into the beautiful girl she is beneath the hardshell surface. In revamping her personality he falls in love with the girl, and his subsequent efforts to impress her involve him in an amusing web of circumstances.

An international spy ring kidnaps Rusty and the girl, thinking them leagued with naval intelligence authorities, and the manner in which Rusty stymies the spies' plans to assassinate a foreign diplomat makes for front rank entertainment.

"Windjammer" Is Sea Story

George O'Brien In RKO-Radio Vehicle At Oak Bay Theatre

Although "Windjammer," now at the Oak Bay Theatre, George O'Brien's new starring vehicle for George A. Hirliman productions released through RKO Radio, is a decided departure from the western type of stories, it is not his first picture with a sea locale.

Several years ago O'Brien made "Seas Beneath," and some time thereafter, "Salute."

In "Windjammer," O'Brien has the role of a young attorney who to serve a subpoena crashes aboard a yacht bound for Honolulu in a racing classic. En route, she is rammed by a schooner and sunk. O'Brien, wealthy sportsman and his beautiful daughter, are picked up by the schooner's shady captain, who plots to turn them over to Oriental bandits to be held for ransom. It is the attempts of O'Brien to save his comrades from this tragic fate that give rise to spectacular and heroic sequences.

Ewing Scott directed and Constance Worth and William Hall head a long list of popular players.

Charlie Ruggles and Eleanor Whitney appear in "Turn of the Moon," the second feature.

Ex-Wheat King Called By Death

Samuel Larcombe Dies At Birtle, Manitoba, In 87th Year

BIRTLE, Man (CP)—Many today mourned the death of Samuel Larcombe, "grand old man" of Canadian prairie agriculture and world wheat king in 1917.

The 86-year-old retired farmer, famed as the producer of Axminster wheat, a rust-resistant variety, was brought to the hospital several days ago suffering from injuries received in a fall. Pneumonia developed and he sank rapidly. He died Wednesday night.

Besides giving the world rust-resistant wheat in 1912, Mr. Larcombe won 3,000 prizes for soil products in his 43 years of farming in Manitoba.

Born in Muusbury village, near Axminster, Devon, April 9, 1851, he began work on a farm with his father at the age of nine as an experienced gardener. In 1889 he came to Canada.

Wide Gap At Labor Meeting

Big Task For A.F.L. And C.I.O. Peace Committees At Washington Monday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Heads of the American Federation of Labor and leaders of the Committee for Industrial Organization will have a wide gulf to bridge when they start talking peace Monday.

All sides agree the first conference probably can accomplish no more than a few preliminary steps toward reunion.

In both camps leaders agreed the conference's first job would be to adjust the size of the committee. They said either the A.F. of L. would have to enlarge its committee to 10 or the C.I.O. reduce its to three.

C.I.O. leaders also want a large group on each side to ratify or reject the small committee's decisions.

C.I.O. leaders say the Federation's small committee is completely under the control of the A.F. of L. executive council. They want a committee representative of more of the Federation's 100 unions. The council speaks directly for only 15 of the Federation's larger unions.

EDGETT JOINS MILK BOARD

VANCOUVER (CP) — Col. C. E. Edgett, former city police chief, today said he had accepted an invitation to membership in the proposed "neutral" milk marketing board for the lower mainland district.

Col. Edgett was asked to accept a position on the board by E. D. Barrow and W. T. McArthur, named by the Fraser Valley Milk Producers' Association and Independent producers to represent them on the proposed board.

Formal appointment of the new board is expected next week. It may begin opeerations early in November.

Trading Is Erratic With Close Higher On Wall St. Today

NEW YORK (AP)—A late rally in the rails stiffened a wavering stock market today as rumors reached brokerage quarters a favorable interstate commerce decision on the carriers' plea for increased freight rates was imminent.

The list whipped up a fast recovery push at the start, with blocks of 1,000 to 5,000 shares changing hands on the upside. The ticker tape lagged throughout the entire first hour and at one time was six minutes behind.

Steels quickly weakened, however, and profit selling in other categories soon halted the forward swing. The pace slowed as bids were lowered and early advances of one to three or more points were reduced or transformed into losses.

Continued strength in rail bonds though, eventually seeped into the stock division and in the final hour a burst of buying in transportation shares brought support for virtually all other divisions. Even steels cut their declines substantially and some substituted plus for minus signs. The tape again lagged on the home stretch.

Share transfers were around the 4,000,000 mark.

Erratic tendencies displayed by stocks in the morning encouraged some traders to cash in generous gains which had piled up since the Tuesday snap back.

Steels apparently were chilled by the closing down of a number of blast furnaces at Pittsburgh and further signs operating rates and earnings for this industry may have to be revised downward.

Opinions in the street varied, but one commission house summarized what a number of financial observers think as follows:

"While the short-term outlook depends largely on technical factors and mob psychology, the level of stock prices which we will see several months from now will probably depend on whether or not we are entering a major depression. It is too early to predict this with any certainty.

"The decline in the market itself is causing conservatism among business men and marked changes in business plans. Conversely, if a public buying wave carries stock prices upward, the business outlook will be improved. The action of Congress in the coming special session could also have an important effect. Modification of some of the tax legislation could be very constructive."

Forty bonds—95.29, up 0.90.

Futures Firm On Winnipeg Market

WINNIPEG (CP) — Wheat futures on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange were firm today, with buying credited to commission houses and purchases by overseas interests keeping prices above the previous close most of the session. At the final bell values were ¾ to ¼ cent higher, October at $1.26½, November $1.25⅝ to $1.25½, December $1.20⅝ to $1.20¾ and May $1.18 to $1.18⅛.

Climbing stock markets and steady Liverpool prices were in the background of a strong undertone during the day's trading. Advances of more than a cent were made in the first hour. Some profit-taking pared gains.

Cash wheat premiums were higher. Spreads of Nos. 1 and 2 northern grades advanced two cents to bring prices 25 and 16 cents above the October future, respectively. Nos. 3 and 4 sold at unchanged spreads, 6½ and 12 cents below the October future, respectively. Mills were credited with purchases of top grades.

Liverpool closed unchanged to ¾d, higher. Buenos Aires, which gained 9⅞ to 2⅞ cents yesterday, was 2⅛ to 3 cents lower at noon. United States wheat futures were firm.

Coarse grains trading returned buying of October oats and rye. Easiness in oats yesterday, following announcement duty would be lifted on oats coming to Canada from the United States for Saskatchewan government drought relief had little effect. October oats and rye were more than a cent higher.

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat late today suffered 1½ cents a bushel overnight setback following New York stock market reactions and a letup of export demand for North American wheat.

A feature of wheat trade was selling of May contracts here against purchases at Winnipeg. Active mill demand for wheat here was much in evidence on price declines.

At the close, wheat was unchanged to ⅞ lower compared with yesterday's finish, December 99⅜ to 99½, May 99⅛ to 99¼; corn ⅛ to 1⅞ up, December 60 to 60⅛, May 61¼ to 61⅜, and oats unchanged to ⅛ cent advance.

Pictures Over the Ocean

When King George VI was crowned, many newspapers on our continent printed photographs of the event on the very same day. How could such a thing be?

The photographs were not carried by airplane. It is possible for airplanes to cross the Atlantic very quickly these days, but no pilot could do it in time to deliver a picture within an hour or so after an event happened.

The "pictures across the ocean" were made possible by telegraph and radio systems of sending pictures.

Tests of inventions to send drawings by telegraph were made as far back as 90 years. The first tests were not successful, but Abbe Caselli sent drawings by telegraph in 1862.

The great success, however, has come during the present century. Photographs have been sent thousands of miles through wires, and at the end of the journey have been almost as good as the original.

Photographs also have been sent without wires — in other words by radio. It is amazing how clear cut some of those sent during the past few years have been. Artists in a newspaper office may "touch up" pictures which come in this way, but even without their work, a photograph can give a word idea of what has happened at a long distance.

If we look at a photograph printed in a newspaper from an engraving, we see many "dots." Some of the dots are heavy, others light.

The hundreds of dots in an engraving give us the picture. They show the shading, some being just a little lighter or just a little darker than those nearby.

The light parts and the dark parts of pictures are picked up and sent to receiving stations. The photo-electric cell has been a great help in sending pictures great distances. This device grew out of a discovery by a German scientist, Heinricn Hertz, many years ago.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a woman in my late 20's, and I believe I express the sentiments of the majority of my sex when I say that the reason that so many girls of my age are so anxious to marry and get the "searching look" in their eyes is not from fear of being an old maid, but of missing what every woman realizes is living — the joy of loving and being loved, and the happiness of having children. I appreciate that marriage may not always be a song, but, after all, it's life, and one can't blame a woman whose youth is fleeting for becoming heart sick because she feels that she is missing the essence of life itself. TWENTY-EIGHT.

Answer: Certainly not. Of course, every woman, barring the few who are born celibates, wants to marry and have her man, her children, her own home. It's a primal instinct, and in a well-ordered world there should be a good husband for every girl and babes with naturally curly hair, dressed in white muslin with blue ribbons, and a vine-wreathed cottage.

Perhaps when the President gets through settling all the other affairs of the universe, he will take this matter up and inaugurate a H.P.A. (husband-provided association) and those young women who believe that getting married is life itself will only have to present their tickets and take their choice of partners.

Unfortunately, however, that glad day has not arrived, and as things are in this cock-eyed old world there does not seem to be a sufficient supply of husbands to go around. At any rate, men seem less and less inclined to marry, whether because of the high cost of living and the realization that the income that means good clothes and golf and being invited out to cocktail parties for one, connotes shabbiness and pushing the perambulator, veal stew and no invitations, if divided up with a wife and babies, or because bachelor apartments with valet service have taken away man's necessity for a wife, or whether because men who spend their days working with women are fed up with feminine society and do not wish for another helping, only men themselves can say.

At any rate, it is a condition and not a theory that confronts the modern woman in marriage. Thousands of them are bound to be old maids, because men either can't or won't marry, and I think it is a pity that they can't learn to accept the matter philosophically and stop idealizing marriage and thinking that if they miss it they have lost out in life.

Of course, no one will deny that the woman who gets a good, kind, generous, faithful husband, who loves her and who is her heart's desire; who has children who are paragons, who has a beautiful home and plenty of money to run it on, is a darling of the gods who has been given the best things in the world. But there is just about one woman in 100,000 that draws this lucky number.

The great majority of women who marry find that marriage means hard work, worry and pinching economies; walking the baby at night, quarreling children and wondering where the rent money is coming from; putting up with the whims and temper of crochety husbands who take them for granted and never pay them a compliment, or even take them out to the movies. Maybe this is the "essence of life" that you pine for, but it is not without significance that one woman out of every six that try it likes the flavor so little that she gets a divorce.

However, that is not the point. The point is that so many women lose all the pleasure they might get out of their free independent lives in which they have their own latchkeys and their own money and limited hours of work because they haven't hubsands and because they delude themselves in the belief that however other marriages turn out, theirs would be a dream of bliss. And that's a pity.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a young girl who has been going out regularly with a boy for about eight months, but my mother will never let me go anywhere without my little brother being along. That makes it embarrassing for me, and I am afraid it will make me lose the boy. What shall I do? J. O. P.

Answer: Your mother is making a mistake in making little brother tag you. No boy will stand for that long. Tell her that your conscience and sense of right and wrong is a lot better chaperone than any little boy. And that she will have to trust you to live up to principles she has taught you.

Fishermen Change Yachtsman Finds

Smart Young Fellows Now Man Boats, Eastern Racing Enthusiast Says

CHARLOTTETOWN (CP) — Young men, "clean-cut smart young fellows from 18 to 39 years old," had taken the place of "all the old-time fishermen of the north side as I knew it many years ago," Fred E. Morris, president of the Northumberland Yacht Racing Association, said following a cruise along the north coast of Prince Edward Island.

He suspected the change had taken place through the introduction of the gasoline engine into the fishing business.

"One can see that they know their engines from the way they handle them, and they seem to keep them in first class shape, ready to start at a moment's notice. I took a short run up St. Peter's Bay with one of them, and I noticed that one twirl of the engine wheel was all that was neecssary to start it.

"And speaking of this very noticeable change in the personnel of the fishermen, the most amazing thing about them was that they arrived in dozens with their bathing suits on, and played in the water for a long time, diving and swimming off the roof of our cockpit.

"In the old days a fisherman who could swim was a rarity, and the change in this respect astonished me."

No Early Change For Yukon Area

Premier Pattullo States Position To Reporters In Winnipeg

WINNIPEG (CP)—Annexation of the Yukon to British Columbia will definitely take place, but the financial arrangements have not yet been made, Premier Pattullo of British Columbia said when passing through Winnipeg Wednesday en route to Victoria after visits to Ottawa and Hyde Park, N.Y.

No detailed announcement of the transaction would be made until the Rowell royal commission on Dominion-provincial affairs should complete its British Columbia hearings, he said.

Premier Pattullo said he had discussed the proposed Alaska highway with President Roosevelt at Hyde Park.

"He was very frank but prefaced much of it with—'now off the record,' the Premier said.

E. B. ANDROS BACK

"It's too hot there," exclaimed E. B. Andros, well-known Victorian, displaying to newspapermen on board the Ms. Aorangi this morning the healthy sun tan he acquired at Honolulu.

Mr. Andros usually follows the sun each winter, visiting either Hawaii or southern California.

"I think I shall shortly take a trip to southern California," he said.

He denied that he had any intention of running for the mayoralty in Victoria this December. "Not on your life," he said when the question was put to him.

Completing a fast run from Australasia, R.M.M.S. Aorangi, of the Canadian-Australasian Line, docked at Pier 2, Rithet Docks, at 9.30 this morning with a light passenger list.

A total of 130 passengers were aboard, there being 31 first, 56 second and 43 third class.

The ship cleared at noon for Vancouver, being posted to arrive at the mainland port about 6.

Capt. William Martin, regular commander of the Niagara, replaces Capt. T. V. Hill, who is ashore at Sydney on holidays. Capt. Martin reported excellent weather throughout the voyage, with the exception of fog encountered offshore and in the Straits.

DISEMBARKED HERE

Among the first class passengers disembarking here was Andrew Reid, managing director of James Hardie and Co. Ltd., manufacturing firm of Sydney, N.S.W., and chairman of the Kingsley Fairbridge farm school oragnization in New South Wales, who is en route to London.

Mr. Reid was met at the boat by Col. H. T. Logan, principal of the Fairbridge Farm School at Cowichan Station, and he proceeded up the island to inspect the Prince of Wales Fairbridge Farm School.

PLUCKED EYEBROWS

When the Aorangi was warping into her berth, a blonde young lady with scarlet lips, caused great amusement among the officials on the wharf by carefully surveying herself in a vanity mirror and calmly plucking her eyebrows.

She was Miss Irene Vermilion, acrobatic dancer with the Dart Vaudeville Troupe, which has been playing New Zealand and Australia. Miss Vermilion came ashore carrying "Oppy," a four-foot toy kangaroo mascot, which had been presented to her in Melbourne. "Oppy" in turn carried in her pouch a miniature reproduction, "Joey." Other members of the troupe were Evelyn Elias, Monzelle Bruce, Martha and Virginia Dart, a triple-tongued quartette known as the Dart Trumpeters, and Kermit Dart, director.

Mr. Dart stated they had been booked for a tour of China and Japan, but the war in the Orient forced them to change their plans.

Other passengers on the Aorangi were: C. M. Longfield, member of the state electricity commission, Victoria, Australia; W. A. Bartlett, general manager in Sydney for Dunlop Perdrian Rubber Co. Ltd.; Messrs. F. G., A. W. and D. J. Coles of Melbourne, representing G. J. Coles & Co. Ltd., operating chain stores throughout Australia; F. A. Gaydon, connected with the Australian Gaslight Company, accompanied by Mrs. Gaydon; H. C. Crickmer, general manager of the Bank of Australia, Melbourne, accompanied by his wife and their daughter, Miss J. M. Crickmer, and R. O. C. King, connected with the Australian Department of Agriculture.

NOTED STOCKMAN

A. J. Tanner, one of the best-known stockmen in Australia, passed through Victoria today by the Aorangi, en route to England.

Harry Douglas, local agent for the Great Northern Railway and Nippon Yusen Kaisha, returned yesterday from a holiday spent in his former home in Hamilton, Ont. He was accompanied by Mrs. Douglas.

Jack Forsgren, Vancouver's fireman wrestler, returned by the Aorangi today after a successful tour of the Antipodes.

Exchange of Heated Words

These fellows surely are engaged in a hot argument. You can tell by the gesticulation of the lad at right that he's unburdening his mind, just as though they weren't strolling through a puddle of blazing oil. What is it all about? Only a demonstration of new, asbestos suits for Royal Air Force firemen at Cranwell, England.

Apple Shipment Overseas Heavy

Canadian Fruit Will Be Popular Yuletide Gift In United Kingdom

Canadian apples have become increasingly popular for Yuletide gifts to friends in the United Kingdom and British West Indies, and as a result a heavy traffic in this commodity is expected this year, according to G. E. Bellerose, general manager, Canadian National Express.

Canadian National Express announce that they are prepared to assist in selecting a suitable gift along this line and make arrangements for forwarding to continental ports or the British West Indies and mainland.

Rates are given from Montreal, Quebec, Saint John and Halifax to Great Britain, Ireland and the Channel Islands, also to Belgium, Denmark, Germany, Holland, Italy, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland, together with sailing dates from Montreal and Halifax, which will ensure the arrival of the gift in time for Christmas.

Included also among the destinations are Bermuda, British West Indies, British Honduras, British Guiana, the Bahama Islands and Jamaica.

New Fairbridge School Built

Andrew Reid of Sydney Tells Of Plans In New South Wales

Third of the Fairbridge farm schools is established at Molong, in the western district of New South Wales, Australia, it was announced today by Andrew Reid, chairman of the Kingsley Fairbridge Farm School committee in Sydney, N.S.W., who reached Victoria aboard the motorliner Aorangi.

The first Fairbridge farm school is located at Pinjarra, Western Australia, and the second at Cowichan Station, Vancouver Island.

Mr. Reid said the property purchased at Molong comprised 1,428 acres, of which 1,000 acres was cleared for the plough and suitable for cultivation.

Plans in New South Wales for the farm school, he explained, were similar in many respects to the school on Vancouver Island, which he plans to inspect.

Fifty English boys will be first installed in the new Australian school which is known as "Narragoon." The boys, selected by the Fairbridge Farm Schools Inc., the parent body in England, will be between nine and 10 years of age.

The early drafts will be restricted to boys, he said, but when the scheme is well established in New South Wales a number of girls will be brought out for farm training.

The Molong farm school, it is expected, will ultimately accommodate 220 children.

It may be necessary, Mr. Reid said, to establish other Fairbridge schools in the future.

He was accompanied by his wife.

Forsgren said he had appeared in 48 matches in Australia and New Zealand, his opponents including Kingkong Cox and Jumping Joe Savoldi.

The Australian wrestling fans gave the Canadian mat artist a great reception. He had a 13,500 house at Sydney and 13,400 at Melbourne.

Forsgren said he intended to go back to Australasia next year. Another wrestler on board was D. J. McIntyre, who will appear in a bout here.

ALIGNMENT TO SHUT OUT C.I.O.

Federation Embracing Canadian Maritime Unions In Lakes Area Proposed

MONTREAL (CP) — Three unions aligned with the American Federation of Labor moved yesterday to consolidate their strength in Canada's inland waters in a step aimed partly at shutting the Committee for Industrial Organization out of the field.

The A. F. of L. ship and waterfront groups planned a federation embracing all Canadian maritime labor on the Dominion's side of the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River. The bloc was the joint proposal of the International Longshoremen's Association, the Canadian Seamen's Union and the Brotherhood of Railway Freight Handlers.

Romeo Brillon, I.L.A. representative in Montreal, said the nucleus of their proposed organization would be set up at a meeting in Toronto attending by delegates from the three organizations.

Admittedly, Brillon said, the projected new affiliation was being undertaken to head off the C.I.O. in the Canadian marine field. He said he thought this objective should be attained without trouble, since the three component unions all were strong A. F. of L. adherents.

Claims Travel Fosters Peace

CHARLOTTETOWN (CP) — "World touring by automobile, rail, steamship and air, responding to increased travel facilities, and the strong urge to go places, gives promise of an ever-increasing number of visitors to the different parts of the world," declares Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault, president of the Prince Edward Island Travel Bureau.

"At a time when nations are building up serious economic barriers and when wars and crises are of almost weekly occurrence, travelers continue to shuttle back and forth across world borders, completely unconcerned with the diplomatic troubles of their countries. From the standpoint of international understanding and world peace, this development is of great significance, for the more people of different nationalities visit their neighbors or those further removed, the more will bonds of friendship become established," Mr. Justice Arsenault said.

The greatest travelers in the world were "our neighbors to the south," he said, adding that last year, it was estimated they spent in the United States alone, in travel, more than $4,000,000,000. "In 1929 travelers to Canada spent $309,000,000 and in the present year it is estimated that this sum will be surpassed."

Fishermen Capture Pot-heads For Oil

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—Newfoundland fishermen have adapted themselves to the task of catching all kinds of fish in all kinds of ways, but residents of the Chapple Arm district at the head of Trinity Bay used a unique method to catch pot-heads—a whale-like fish—with considerable success this year.

When fishing was poor in Trinity Bay the Chapple Arm fishermen put out in their motorboats every time they saw a school of pot-heads. The motorboats, swung to the outside of the fish, would drive them shoreward, there to flounder in the soft mud, an easy mark for harpoons.

After capture, the pot-heads were dragged up on the beach, the fat removed and rendered into oil in huge boiling pots. Casks of oil were stored all through the season, ready for shipment to St. John's and thence to the United States.

Halibut Fishing Season Is Over

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C. (CP)—Lines were lifted for the last time on the British Columbia halibut banks Tuesday as the season set by the International Fisheries Commission ended. Only two Prince Rupert boats were engaged in fishing over the week-end, but a number of American craft are still working, and landings will probably continue to the end of the week.

Meantime, the fish exchange announced halibut landings here for the current season totaled 13,051,850 pounds to October 15, compared with 10,387,100 at the same date in 1936. The Canadian catch for the year totaled 6,540,850 pounds, against 5,466,600 pounds last year, while American boats landed 6,509,000 pounds compared with 4,920,500 pounds in 1936.
